

ANNOUNCEMENT

1977 MEETING OF THE WESTERN FINANCE ASSOCIATION
ANAHEIM, CALIFORNIA, JUNE 20-23

The annual meeting of the Western Finance Association will be held jointly with the Western Economic Association Conference in Anaheim, California, June 20-23. Western Finance Association sessions will be at the Quality Inn. The seventeen sessions include cocurrent sessions with empirical and theoretical papers from the major areas of financial research plus two sessions devoted to aspects of the teaching of finance. Three featured sessions are:

The WFA Distinguished Speaker Luncheon during which Paul Cootner, C.O.G. Miller Professor of Finance, Stanford University, will speak on "The Theorems of Modern Finance in a General Equilibrium Setting: Paradoxes Resolved."

A panel discussion "On Testing Capital Asset Pricing Models" in which chairman Barr Rosenberg and other distinguished scholars will discuss whether existing capital asset pricing models are testable and if so how they should be tested.

A session on "Applications of Finance Theory" chaired by Fred Weston and in which speakers with significant experience in business applications of modern finance theory will discuss their successes in applying that theory and the problems encountered in doing so.

The Quality Inn is two blocks from Disneyland. Nearby are Knott's Berry Farm, Lion Country Safari, deep sea fishing, swimming and surfing beaches, historic San Juan Capistrano, Anaheim Stadium, Laguna Beach art colony, and many fine restaurants and night spots. Universal Studios, the Queen Mary, and Marineland are a few miles away. A bus to most of these attractions runs regularly from the hotel. Tours and a variety of special activities are being arranged for conference participants and their families.
