The Legal Profession in the United States

Third Edition

JOHN FLOOD

John Flood, the author of the third edition of The Legal Profession in the United States, writes: "The following pages . . . present both glories and failings of the American legal profession while showing how it is constituted and illustrating what it does." The new edition presents the structure of the U.S. political and legal system, and describes the varieties of practice, entrance to the bar, and the composition of the profession. Also contains an annotated select bibliography of writings on the legal profession.
