Health Economics, Policy and Law

Published in association with LSE Health

Editors

Adam Oliver, London School of Economics and Political Science, UK
Elias Mossialos, London School of Economics and Political Science, UK

International trends highlight the confluence of economics, politics and legal considerations in the health policy process. Health Economics, Policy and Law (HEPL) provides a forum for inter-disciplinary health policy studies, and will be of use to academics, policy makers, health care managers and professionals. HEPL is international in scope, publishing both theoretical and applied work, with articles on all aspects of health policy. HEPL is particularly interested in publishing innovative ideas that promise to contribute to improving health and healthcare policy. Considerable emphasis is placed on rigorous conceptual development and analysis, and on the presentation of empirical evidence that is relevant to the policy process. Review articles and debate sections bring readers in touch with current research developments and issues.

Journal of Social Policy

A Journal of the Social Policy Association

Editors

Misa Izuhara, University of Bristol, UK

Patricia Kennett, University of Bristol, UK

The Journal of Social Policy carries high quality articles on all aspects of social policy in an international context. It places particular emphasis upon articles which seek to contribute to debates on the future direction of social policy, to present new empirical data, to advance theories, or to analyse issues in the making and implementation of social policies.

The Journal of Social Policy is part of the 'Social Policy Package' with Social Policy and Society.

Ageing & Society

Published for the Centre for Policy on Ageing and the British Society of Gerontology

Editor

Christina R. Victor, Brunel University, UK

Ageing & Society is an inter-disciplinary and international journal devoted to the understanding of human ageing and the circumstances of older people in their social and cultural contexts. It draws contributions and has readers from many academic social science disciplines, and from clinical medicine and the humanities. In addition to original articles, Ageing & Society publishes book reviews, occasional review articles and special issues.

Ageing & Society has now moved to online submissions. The entire review process is now being conducted through the Manuscript Central platform, including revisions and editorial assessments. If you wish to submit a paper to the journal please do so via the website.

European Journal of Sociology

Editorial office supported by the Centre National de la Recherche Scientifique, Paris

Editors

Michel Dubois, Gemass -CNRS, Paris-Sorbonne, France

Jens Beckert, Max-Planck-Institut für Gesellschaftsforschung, Germany

Michel Forsé, Centre Maurice Halbwachs, CNRS-ENS Paris, France

Christopher Hann, Max-Planck Institute for Social Anthropology, Germany

Wolfgang Knöbl, Georg-August Universität, Göttingen, Germany

Jacques Lautman, Université Aix-Marseille, France

Stephen Lukes, New York University, USA

Consolidating its reputation for comparative and historical sociology of the highest order, European Journal of Sociology publishes original articles of broad interdisciplinary scope which represent some of the best writing in the social sciences today. The journal has a strongly international perspective and publishes a third issue every year exclusively devoted to state-of-the-art surveys, the elucidation of central concepts and review essays which explore key topics with reference to the most relevant recent publication.

Guidelines for Contributors

1. All contributions and correspondence should be sent to SP & S Administrator, Department of Sociological Studies, University of Sheffield, Elmfield, Northumberland Road, Sheffield, S10 2TU, email spseeditors@sheffield.ac.uk
2. Articles should be up to 6,000 words including endnotes, but excluding tables and bibliography. Word length must be stated.
3. Submission of an article is taken to imply that it has not previously been published, and has not been submitted for publication elsewhere. If an author is publishing a related article elsewhere, this fact should be stated. Authors of articles published in the journal assign copyright to Cambridge University Press (with certain rights reserved) and will receive a copyright assignment form for signature on acceptance of their paper. Contributors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce any material in which they do not own copyright, to be used in both print and electronic media, and for ensuring that the appropriate acknowledgements are included in their manuscript.
4. Contributions should be typed double-spaced with generous margins on A4 paper. Contributors should send an electronic copy of the manuscript formatted in Microsoft Word, text or rich text format, by electronic mail to spseeditors@lincoln.ac.uk. Mark your message in the subject box 'New article for SP & S'. Keep a copy of the typescript for correcting proofs. Papers should be anonymised, ready for sending to referees. All contributions should be accompanied by a detachable title page providing information about the word length, the position/s held by the author/s, full correspondence and email addresses and full details of any acknowledgements. Where papers have more than one author, the contact author should be clearly specified.
5. All contributions should be accompanied by an abstract of between 100 and 150 words, up to five key words and details of any acknowledgements.
6. Contributions should conform exactly to the Social Policy and Society style and authors should check the format of their own contribution with that of a recent issue of the journal (or seek advice from the Managing Editor and/or Guest Editor as appropriate) paying particular attention to references and tables. The full instructions for contributors are available from the journal's website: journals.cambridge.org/sps.
7. Discriminatory language should be avoided. Further guidance on avoiding sexist, racist and ableist or other inappropriate language is published by the British Sociological Association (BSA) — see www.britsoc.co.uk/equality. The editorial team are happy to advise authors on the most suitable terminology to use, particularly with respect to subjects not covered by the BSA guidelines, such as age.
8. The Harvard (author/date) system should be used and reference to page numbers in the text should be shown as follows: Maltby, 2002 :1 and not Maltby, 2002, p. 1. References to websites should contain the full URL and date the site was accessed, i.e. <http://www.social-policy.com> [accessed 04.11.2011].
9. Such notes as are essential should be referred to in numerical order throughout the text and the numbers shown as superscript. These notes should be endnotes rather than footnotes and should be placed after the body of the text and before the references.
10. Tables and figures should be clearly laid out and designed to fit onto a page 18 cm x 12 cm. Vertical lines between columns should be omitted, and horizontal lines limited to the top and bottom of the table, with an additional one below the column headings. Totals and percentages should be labelled, and units identified.
11. If an article is accepted for publication, first proofs will be sent to the contact author as an electronic link to a pdf document which the author downloads. Only typographical errors may be changed at proof stage. The publisher reserves the right to charge authors for corrections of non-typographical errors.
12. Paper offprints are not automatically supplied to authors. Upon publication the corresponding author will receive a pdf of their article. Paper offprints can be purchased by using the form supplied at proof stage.

The Social Policy Association

The Social Policy Association supports the study of all aspects of Social Policy through the sponsorship of its journals (Journal of Social Policy, Social Policy and Society), the publication of a newsletter, the organisation of an annual conference and a small grants scheme. It represents its members through contact with a range of bodies, including the ESRC. For further information about the activities of the SPA, contact: Tina Haux, School of Social Policy, Sociology and Social Research, University of Kent, Canterbury, Kent, CT2 7NF
