INTERNATIONAL BOUNDARY CASES: THE CONTINENTAL SHELF

In recent years disputes about continental shelf boundaries have given rise to an important body of international case law. With scores of such boundary problems still remaining to be settled, the convenience of having a handy, fully indexed collection of all the relevant international decisions is self-evident. Each case is preceded by a helpful summary. The collection has an Introduction by Michael Wallace.

TERRORISM AND HOSTAGES IN INTERNATIONAL LAW

— A COMMENTARY ON THE HOSTAGES CONVENTION 1979

Joseph J. Lambert

This book provides an in-depth commentary on the Hostages Convention and, to a lesser extent, the seven other agreements dealing with offences related to terrorism.

Among the legal issues examined in relation to international terrorism are extradition, asylum, mutual assistance in criminal matters, State responsibility, international efforts to prevent terrorism, the establishment of extra-territorial jurisdiction, the principle of non-refoulement, the relationship between terrorism and the laws of armed conflict, and the use of force in response to terrorism.

454 pp. including Index
Price: Hardback £58.00 (US$110.00)

Published February 1990
ISBN 0 949009 46 6

MIXED INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION

Stephen J. Toope

This book focuses on the process of arbitration between States and private persons. On the basis of an examination of this process the author assesses the role of the parties, the relative importance of their interests, the sources of law and the role of the adjudicator.

The book will be of special interest to practitioners of all forms of international commercial arbitration and also to international lawyers interested in questions of dispute resolution. As a general survey of the subject, the work will be invaluable to students.

436 pp. including Index
Price: Hardback £58.00 (US$110.00)

Published October 1990
ISBN 0 949009 81 4

LOCAL REMEDIES IN INTERNATIONAL LAW

Dr. C. F. Amerasinghe

This book examines the local remedies rule in modern international law generally and also in the area of human rights protection. The law is presented in the light of State practice and the jurisprudence of international courts and tribunals. The book takes into account the recent work on the subject by the International Law Commission which has not hitherto been examined.

438 pp. including Table of Cases, Bibliography and Index

International Law and Arms Control

The International Law of Arms Control and Disarmament

Edited by Dr. Julie Dahlitz, and
Prof Detlev Dicke

The need to limit and prohibit classes of weapons has never been more urgent and complicated - a situation that will become even more pressing in years to come. This collection of 15 papers is a significant landmark in international law since this is the first occasion that academic lawyers, legal practitioners, and most importantly, reputable United Nations officials have provided a top level study on the subject of arms control and disarmament law as an identifiable branch of international law.

Conversion and Economic Adjustments in an Era of Arms Reduction - (Topical papers No.5)

As new initiatives by Bush and Gorbachev for arms reduction are proposed, this two-volume publication on conversion becomes more and more relevant. The publication highlights the challenges of conversions seen by various leaders in industry and German, Soviet and American government officials. It also includes an examination of the global dimension of conversion in a series of papers by experts in international relations and well-known economists. Vol II contains case studies on China, Italy, Germany, the United States and the Soviet Union.

Karl P. Sauvant and Jörg Weber

This newest segment in Oceana's umbrella set, LAW AND PRACTICE UNDER THE GATT, under the General Editorship of Brian H.W. Hill and K. R. Simmonds, is a collection of the most important agreements and arrangements for Services transactions. As established in the Uruguay Round, Services is understood to include wholesale and retail trade, transportation, communication, banking, finance, insurance, business and professional services, community and social services and personal service. The Services sector has become the most important part of economic activity in both developed and developing countries, and Services are the key industries for economic, social, cultural and political development. This publication is therefore a valuable addition to your library.

Included are general agreements and arrangements covering Services on a global, regional and bilateral basis, and sectoral agreements covering specific Services.

International Legal Materials

Gives You Facts At Your Fingertips

- 1 How has German reunification been accomplished?
- 2 Which countries have enacted new investment laws or signed bilateral investment treaties?
- 3 How is arbitration used to settle international commercial disputes?
- 4 Which new areas of cooperation does the ACP-EC Lomé IV Convention cover?
- 5 Is on-site verification a part of all new arms control agreements?
- 6 What came out of the Uruguay Round?
- 7 How will Australia and Indonesia jointly develop the resources of the seabed?
- 8 What has been the response to Iraqi aggression?
- 9 Are there international standards for the protection of children?
- 10 What are the requirements for a comprehensive political settlement of the Cambodia conflict?

International Legal Materials has the answers to all these questions and more.

Have the facts before the secondary sources provide the analysis. Reach an objective understanding of current issues by examining the official texts of treaties, legislation, court decisions, declarations, draft proposals, and memoranda that affect international relations and global interdependence. Background notes and content summaries accompany the documents. Published six times a year and indexed annually.

Order from ILM, the American Society of International Law, 2223 Massachusetts Ave., N.W., Washington, D.C. 20008-2864. $75 for ASIL members; $150 for non-members; additional $7 postage outside USA. Back issues are available upon request @ $30 each plus postage and handling. (202) 265-4313; FAX (202) 797-7133.
