

ANNOUNCEMENTS

HES Sessions at 2003 ASSA Conference: The History of Economics Society will sponsor four sessions at the Allied Social Sciences Association (ASSA) meetings January 3–5, 2003, in Washington DC. Please consult the HES web site (<http://eh.net/HE/HisEcSoc/>) for further information.

Call for Papers, History of Economics Society Annual Meeting: The annual conference of the History of Economics Society will be held July 4–6, 2003, at Duke University. Proposals for papers or sessions on all aspects of the history of economic thought are welcome, although those concerned with economics in the twentieth century are especially welcome. Submit an abstract of no more than 200 words for a paper or no more than 400 words for a session before February 15, 2003. Selected papers from the meeting will be published in a special issue of the Journal of the History of Economic Thought. Proposals may be submitted on the web at the society's website www.eh.net/HE/HisEcSoc, or to President-elect E. Roy Weintraub by email to HES2003@duke.edu, or by post to "HES 2003" at Department of Economics, Box 90097, Duke University, Durham NC 27708, or by fax to "HES 2003" at (919) 684–8974. Further information and registration information can be obtained from the society's website.

Call for Papers: The History of Economics Society will sponsor four sessions at the Allied Social Sciences Association (ASSA) meetings: January 3–5, 2004 (Saturday, Sunday, Monday) in San Diego, California. Please submit suggestions for organizing sessions and abstracts for papers (approx. 200 words) no later than April 14, 2003. Please note that early submissions and submissions for whole sessions will be given preferential consideration. Proposals relating to any aspect of the history of economics or subjects of related interest to the community of historians of economics should be sent to: Mary S. Morgan, Vice-President HES, Department of Economic History, London School of Economics, Houghton Street, London WC2A 2AE, UK; or by e-mail to: m.morgan@lse.ac.uk (email is preferred).

ESHET Conference, 2003: The 7th Annual Conference of the European Society for the History of Economic Thought (ESHET) will be held at the Carré des Sciences and the Université of Paris-I, in Paris, during the period January 30–February 1, 2003. The theme of the conference is, "The Economic Agent: Theory and History." For further information, please consult the conference web site at <http://phare.univparis1.fr/ESHET/index.html>, or contact PHARE—Colloque

ESHET, Université de Paris X—Nanterre, 200 avenue de la République, Bâtiment K, 92001 Nanterre Cedex, FRANCE (email: phare@univ-paris1.fr).

Conference Announcement: AISPE—Associazione Italiana per la Storia del Pensiero Economico will hold its 7th annual conference in Brescia, February 20–22, 2003. General topic: “The Changing Firm: Contributions from the History of Economic Thought.” Further information about the conference can be found at <http://dipartimento1.dse.uniroma1.it/aispe/aispe/.asp>, or by contacting Marco E. L. Guidi, Dipartimento di studi sociali, Università di Brescia, Via S. Faustino 74/B, 25122 Brescia Italy; tel. +39 030 2988 878 (office), +39 030 2988 896 (department); fax +39 030 2988 893; email: guidi@eco.unibs.it.

Call for Papers, ECHE 2003: The Eighth Annual European Conference on the History of Economics will be held at the Technical University of Lisbon, Lisbon, Portugal May 2–4, 2003. The conference will have as its theme, “Economics and Exile: Émigrés in the History of 20th Century Economics.” Requests for information should be sent to: Jose Luis Cardoso, CISEP-2003 ECHE, Rua Miguel Lupi 20, P-1200 Lisbon, PORTUGAL (phone: (351-1) 391-25-30/395-57-45; fax: (351-1) 396-73-09; email: jcardoso@iseg.utl.pt).

Call for Papers, Essays on Hume’s Political Economy: We invite you to submit a paper for presentation at a conference on Hume’s political economy, to be held at Columbia University (New York City) on May 9–10, 2003. The paper is to be new and original, and not intended for publication elsewhere. Some of the topics we hope to cover are Hume on trade and commerce, money and credit, trust and social capital, economic development, and public finance. Papers that link Hume’s political economy to his other writings or place it in a broader historical context are also welcome. If you are interested in participating, please send us a letter of intent and a one-page abstract of your paper by December 1, 2002. For further information, please contact Margaret Schabas, Philosophy Department, University of British Columbia, Vancouver BC, Canada V6T 1Z1 (email: Schabas@interchange.ubc.ca) or Carl Wennerlind, Economics Department, Barnard College, Columbia University, 3009 Broadway, New York, NY 10027 USA (email: cwennerl@barnard.edu).

Turgot Conference: On May 7–10, 2003, the National Institute for Demographic Studies (Institut National d’Études Démographiques), the Turgot Society (Société des Amis de Turgot), and the University of Caen will organize in Lantheuil Castle (Calvados, low Normandy) a Conference devoted to the action, publications and influence of the father of French liberalism, controller general A.-R.-J. Turgot, “Turgot (1727–1781), Our Contemporary: Economics, Administration and Government in the Enlightenment.” This conference will not only study the fundamental contribution made by Turgot to the economic thought of the Enlightenment, but also measure what lessons can be drawn today from his reflection and from his actions. Contact: Jacqueline Hecht, INED, 133 bd Davout, 75020 Paris, France (Tel: 33 (0)1 56 06 2114 or 33 (0)1 56 06 20 24; Fax: 33 (0)1 56 06 21 93; email: varlet@ined.fr).

Conference Announcement: The International Confederation of Associations for Pluralism in Economics (ICAPE) announces its first conference on “The Future of Heterodox Economics,” June 5–7, 2003 at the University of Missouri at Kansas City, USA. Founded in 1993, ICAPE is a consortium of 40 organizations working cooperatively to foster pluralism in the analytical perspectives, methods, policy discourse, and education of professional economists. Now, ten years on, ICAPE is sponsoring its first conference: on the future of heterodox economics. This conference is an invitation to think anew about who and what “heterodox economics” is becoming, intellectually and institutionally. Contact Rob Garnett, Department of Economics, Box 298510, Texas Christian University, Fort Worth, TX 76129, or to r.garnett@tcu.edu.