Cultural magazines come and go only too fleetingly, and to survive ten years must be regarded as a remarkable achievement for any publication of real quality. ENCOUNTER is now ten years old. It has not only survived, but has gone from strength to strength. Today, with a circulation of 35,000, it is the most widely read magazine of its type in the English language.

ENCOUNTER has been praised for its unique blend of world politics, sociology and the arts. "It has discussed ideas and current affairs with great vigour," wrote The Guardian. Recent contributors have included Noel Annan, Raymond Aron, W. H. Auden, D. W. Brogan, Sir Kenneth Clark, Edward Crankshaw, R. H. S. Crossman, Marcus Cunliffe, Richard Hoggart, Herbert Luethy, Mary McCarthy, Hugh Seton-Watson, John Wain, J. G. Weightman, and Peter Wiles.

ENCOUNTER is best appreciated by those who read it regularly. A year's subscription costs £2 10s. 0d. (U.S. $8.50), including the cost of postage to any address in the world. Full-time students (who should state their course and place of study) may subscribe for £1 15s. 0d. ($6.00). A sample copy will be sent to anyone who applies to the address below.
