The Classical Association

The objects of the Classical Association are to promote the development and maintain the well-being of classical studies, and in particular (a) to impress upon public opinion the claim of such studies to an eminent place in the national scheme of education; (b) to improve the practice of classical teaching; (c) to encourage investigation and call attention to new discoveries; (d) to create opportunities for intercourse among lovers of classical learning.

Membership of the Association is open to men and women alike. The annual subscription is 5s. (life composition, £5. 5s.). Members receive a copy of the annual Proceedings of the Association. They may also obtain the Classical Review and Classical Quarterly at reduced prices (Review 30s., Quarterly 25s.; combined subscription £2. 13s.), though the reduction cannot be guaranteed unless the subscription is paid before January 31st in each year. Greece and Rome may be obtained for an annual subscription of 20s.

NELSON'S

Atlas of the Classical World

Edited by

A. A. M. VAN DER HEYDEN Hist Drs

and

H. H. SCULLARD MA PhD FBA

This volume is—as so many reviewers said of its predecessors, Nelson's Atlas of the Bible and Atlas of the Early Christian World—'much more than an atlas'. It exploits the resources of author, cartographer, and cameraman to achieve an engrossing re-creation of the ancient world of Greece and Rome.

ILLUSTRATIONS Many of the superb photographs, reproduced in gravure, were taken specially for this book, with the active assistance of the Governments and Air Forces of Greece and Italy. They present the geographical background—famous centres and sites of the classical scene and its landscapes. They provide also a conspectus of classical art—the notable landmarks in its development as well as small everyday objects. Line drawings clarify technical points for the non-expert.

MAPS The maps illustrate every facet of classical history to be expected in such an Atlas. But they also depict for the first time many new topics, such as the sanctuaries of the Greek Gods, Greek buildings in the Mediterranean area, the organization of the Roman army and fleet, troop movements, trade in the Empire, the supply of animals for the arenas, and so on. Comments are imposed on each map in a manner to increase its usefulness both to the scholar and to the general reader.

TEXT Maps and illustrations are amplified and co-ordinated by a narrative and expository text. It covers systematically the political, social, and cultural history of the classical world, the rise and fall of Greece and Rome. A final section treats in detail classical literature and art and Roman law, showing how the world today feels their influence still.

INDEX A comprehensive index to Plates, Maps, and Text renders the book an indispensable work of reference for students.
