The Cambridge Companion to Shakespeare Studies

Edited by STANLEY WELLS

This comprehensive introduction to the study of Shakespeare offers a series of essays specially written by an international team of leading scholars. Particular attention is given to new critical approaches and the plays on film and television. Thus the book forms an indispensable companion to anyone with a serious interest in Shakespeare.

Shakespeare and the Victorian Stage

Edited by RICHARD FOULKES

The contributions to this book constitute the first concerted account of the place of Shakespeare in the Victorian theatre and the cultural life of the country in the nineteenth century. A fascinating and well illustrated account is given of the changing styles of acting and staging used for Shakespeare's plays.

Plays by Charles Reade

Edited by MICHAEL HAMMET

This edition contains the three most important and successful works of Charles Reade (1814-1884), Masks and Faces, The Courier of Lyons and It is Never Too Late to Mend. Dr Hammet provides an informative introduction, notes on the text, a full list of Reade's plays and productions, and a bibliography.

Restoration Comedy in Performance

J. L. STYAN

Restoration comedy disappeared from the stage for nearly 200 years until it was revived early this century and it suffered from inappropriate literary and moralistic criticism which continues to this day. In this liberally illustrated book John Styan persuades us that only through a performance approach to the great restoration comedies can we recover a sense of their value.

The Selected Plays of John Marston

Edited by MACDONALD JACKSON and MICHAEL NEILL

This edition brings together five of Marston's most interesting plays in a readable and helpful form. Marston's plays have enjoyed popular revivals in English theatres over the last decade, and the authors' commentary is designed to alert readers to theatrical effects. The playwright's language is elucidated here far more fully than in any other collection.

The Selected Plays of John Ford

The Broken Heart, 'Tis Pity She's a Whore, Perkin Warbeck

Edited by COLIN GIBSON

This selection contains the three finest plays of the Stuart dramatist John Ford. Together they exemplify the unique tone of Ford's drama, in which passion and gravity are united by a playwright with a poetic sense of theatre. There is a full textual apparatus which makes this edition useful for the scholar as well as the student.
