

Figures

1.1	Deformation as a mark of enslavement?	page 35
2.1	Share of transatlantic captives taken from Africa by location of home ports of vessels carrying them	50
2.2	Panning for gold in Mato Grosso	77
3.1	Profile of the steam-powered slave ship Cicerón	109
3.2	Time profile of French transatlantic slave voyages	120
4.1	Image of the Liverpool slave ship Brooks according to the “Society for Effecting the Abolition of the Slave Trade: Description of a Slave Ship” (London, 1789)	154
4.2	The Marie-Séraphique (ID 30941) showing the barricado midships	155
4.3	The slave deck of the Marie-Séraphique (ID 30941) during the transatlantic voyage as drawn by one of the ship’s officers	156
4.4	Contemporary image of the Isla de Cuba (ID 4961)	190
4.5	Albanez (ID 3483). Detained in 1845 with 600 captives, fewer than half of whom are shown in the image	191
4.6	Image of the Diligente (ID 2588), showing approximately half the number of captives on board at the time of detention	191
5.1	Slave-trading compound at Loango, north of the Congo estuary, 1771	211
6.1	References to “slaves” in seventeenth- and eighteenth-century newspapers by decade distributed according to whether the slaves were European (“White”) or African (“Black”)	280
7.1	Liberated Africans on board HMS Daphne , 1868	293
7.2	Liberated African children on board HMS Daphne , 1868	294
7.3	Liberated Africans on board HMS Undine , 1883	294

7.4	Catherine Zimmerman Mulgrave, seated third from the left. Photograph, 1873	325
7.5	Samuel Ajayi Crowther (center) visiting the “Wilberforce Oak” (Keston, Kent) in 1873, along with leading members of the Church Missionary Society in Sierra Leone and Nigeria	326
7.6	Headstones of a prominent Liberated African in Freetown, Sierra Leone	327
7.7	Liberated Africans in St. Helena fifty years on from their arrival on the Aventureiro (ID 4031) in 1850	328
7.8	Survivors of the Wanderer (ID 4974) photographed in 1908	329
7.9	A further survivor of the Wanderer (ID 4974) in 1908	329
7.10	Survivor of the Clotilde (ID 36990): Oluale (Charlie Lewis) disembarked at Twelvemile Island, Alabama, in 1860; photographed in 1900	330
7.11	Survivors of the Clotilde (ID 36990): Abache (Clara Turner) and Kossola (Cudjo Lewis) disembarked at Twelvemile Island, Alabama, in 1860	331
7.12	Survivor of the Clotilde (ID 36990): Pollee Allen disembarked at Twelvemile Island, Alabama, in 1860; shown in c. 1912	332
7.13	Survivor of the Clotilde (ID 36990): Kossola (Cudjo Lewis) disembarked at Twelvemile Island, Alabama, in 1860; shown at home c. 1927	333