SHADES of DIFFERENCE

MAC MAHARAJ AND THE STRUGGLE FOR SOUTH AFRICA

foreword by Nelson Mandela

The inside story of South Africa's anti-apartheid movement, told through the experiences of one of its unsung heroes.

"A collaborative biography, bringing together the author's analysis and Maharaj's own reflections, transcribed from hours of interviews....It is a striking success."

—The New York Times Book Review

"Brings needed attention to a significant associate of Mandela."

—Gilbert Taylor, Booklist

"A groundbreaking biography."

—Publishers Weekly

"Brilliantly written."

HEALING TRADITIONS

African Medicine, Cultural Exchange, and Competition in South Africa, 1820–1948

Karen E. Flint

“An extremely timely book that will have immediate impact on the heated current debates across several fields of study, forming part of a new and exciting debate emerging around new South African history. The book has great potential to have a measurable impact on the teaching of medicine and health . . . and the various pathways to healing and health in our current HIV/AIDS pandemic.”

MYTH OF IRON

Shaka in History

Dan Wylie

“Wylie locates what we can know or reasonably surmise about Shaka in the broader context of local and global historical factors, which is immensely valuable. That, combined with his detailed unweaving of the Shaka myth, makes for a deeply fascinating volume.”—Shaun de Waal, Mail & Guardian

640 pages, pb $29.95

Copublished with the University of KwaZulu-Natal Press, South Africa

THE TWELVE BEST BOOKS BY AFRICAN WOMEN

Critical Readings

Edited by Chikwenye Okonjo Ogunyemi and Tuzyline Jita Allan

AFRICA WRITES BACK

The African Writers Series & the Launch of African Literature

James Currey

"[This book] is full of the drama . . . of dealing with the often intractable political constraints dominating the intellectual space across Africa, and . . . with the writers themselves—with their ambitions, their temperaments, their financial needs and, at times, their perception of a colonial relationship between themselves and a European publishing house."—Clive Wake

320 pages, hc $55.00, pb $26.95

REASSESSING DEVELOPMENT

Bewitching Development

Witchcraft and the Reinvention of Development in Neoliberal Kenya

JAMES HOWARD SMITH

“Bewitching Development offers a challenging approach to the issue of development and its intertwinement with witchcraft. Skillfully grounded in rich ethnographic data, Smith’s innovative interpretations of these urgent issues are highly convincing and will have a profound influence on ongoing debates.”

THE HARVARD ACADEMY FOR INTERNATIONAL AND AREA STUDIES
The Harvard Academy Scholars Program
2009-2010

The Academy Scholars Program seeks to identify and support outstanding scholars who are at the start of their careers whose work combines disciplinary excellence in the social sciences (including history and law) with a command of the language, history or culture of non-Western countries or regions. Their scholarship may elucidate domestic, comparative, or transnational issues, past or present.

The Academy Scholars are a select group of individuals who show promise of becoming leading scholars at major universities or international institutions. The competition for these awards is open only to recent Ph.D. (or comparable professional school degree) recipients and doctoral candidates. Pre-doctoral applicants must have completed all course work and general examinations at the time of application and are expected to have made significant progress on their dissertations.

Academy Scholars are appointed and supported by the Harvard Academy for International and Area Studies and are provided time, guidance, access to Harvard facilities, and substantial financial assistance as they work for two years conducting either post-doctoral or final-stage dissertation research in their chosen fields and areas. Some teaching is permitted but not required. The Senior Scholars, a distinguished group of senior Harvard faculty members, act as mentors to the Academy Scholars to help them achieve their intellectual potential.

Post-doctoral Scholars will receive an annual stipend of $48,000, and pre-doctoral Scholars will receive an annual stipend of $28,000. Applications for the 2009-2010 class of Academy Scholars are due by October 10, 2008. Finalist interviews will take place in Cambridge December 12, 2008. Notification of Scholarships will be made in January, 2009. For complete information on how to apply visit:

MODERN AFRICA

Trinity College invites applications for a tenure-track position at the rank of assistant professor in the history of Africa. Geographic and topical specializations are open. This is a joint position shared by the History Department and the International Studies Program. We require a Ph.D. in African history or related field, a firm commitment to undergraduate teaching in a Liberal Arts college environment, and a strong research agenda. Preference given to candidates who can contribute to Trinity's efforts to enhance its interdisciplinary program in International Studies. Teaching responsibilities will be largely within the context of the undergraduate curriculum and will include two semester surveys of Africa and seminars on specialized topics. Candidates with a strong gender focus are particularly invited to apply. Preliminary interviews will be conducted at the African Studies Association and the AHA meetings. Applications will be accepted until the position is filled. Candidates should send a letter of application detailing research and teaching interest, c.v., dossier, and at least three letters of recommendation to Prof. Kathleen Kete, Africa Search, Department of History, Trinity College, Hartford, CT 06106. Women and members of minority groups are strongly encouraged to apply. Trinity College is an AA/EOE. For more information about the Department and Program, please visit our websites at: <http://www.trincoll.edu/Academics/Study/history> and <http://www.trincoll.edu/Academics/Study/InternationalStudies>.

JOURNALS OF
THE AFRICAN STUDIES ASSOCIATION
AVAILABLE IN JSTOR

Since 2002, the African Studies Association has worked with JSTOR, an online digital archive, to provide access to complete back runs of ASA journals. Users may search, browse, view, and print full-text PDF versions of articles in three ASA journals, from their first year published through all but the current and three previous volumes:

African Issues (1971)
African Studies Review (1958)
History in Africa (1974)

These journals are available as part of JSTOR's Arts & Sciences II and the Complement Collections. Users at institutions that participate in any of these collections can access the publications directly at www.jstor.org.

Individual articles from the back issues of ASA's publications are also available for purchase at $12.00 per article through JSTOR's Publisher Sales Service, a collaborative initiative to facilitate access to important scholarly literature for independent scholars. For more information on this program, please visit http://www.jstor.org/about/pss\_title\_list.html.

JSTOR is proud to collaborate with the African Studies Association to preserve and make widely available the historic literature of our field.

JSTOR is a not-for-profit organization dedicated to helping the scholarly community discover, use, and build upon a wide range of intellectual content in a trusted digital archive. Its overarching aims are to preserve a record of scholarship for posterity and to advance research and teaching in cost-effective ways. JSTOR collaborates with organizations that can help achieve its objectives and maximize the benefits for the scholarly community
