The Department of Philosophy of the State University of New York at Buffalo is organizing an International Conference on Philosophy and Science in Phenomenological Perspective, dedicated to the memory of Marvin Farber (1901–1980) during March 11–13, 1982. The Conference emphasizes the critical examination of the aims, issues, and methods of philosophy in their relation to various disciplines. There will be a special section dedicated to Marvin Farber, reviewing his contribution to and criticism of phenomenology as well as his general contribution to American philosophy in the 20th century. The Conference is also sponsored by the International Phenomenological Society. Further information may be obtained from Professor Kah Kyung Cho, Department of Philosophy, State University of New York at Buffalo, Buffalo, NY 14260.
