EUROPEAN SOCIOLOGICAL REVIEW

Editor: Karl Ulrich Mayer, Max-Planck-Institute for Human Development and Education

Associate Editors: Stein Ringen, Swedish Institute for Social Research
John H. Goldthorpe, Nuffield College, Oxford

The European Sociological Review is a new English Language journal covering all fields of Sociology and aiming primarily to present papers in which research expertise is combined with substantive and theoretical significance. The journal aims to provide an effective medium for presenting the work of an emergent generation of European sociologists to an international audience, and to further this work by providing a forum for scholarly exchange and debate.

The European Sociological Review will be published three times a year in May, September and December. Please write to the address below for full details of this important new journal

The Eugenics Society

Marie Stopes Research Fund

The Council of the Eugenics Society is prepared to receive applications for support of UK-based research projects in those areas of activity for which Dr Marie Stopes is best remembered, namely:

(a) fertility control; (b) differential fertility; (c) eugenic aspects of reproduction and population; (d) eugenic aspects of sex education and sexual behaviour and the impact of all these and related matters on the welfare of women and of the community, with particular emphasis (in keeping with the biosocial outlook of the Society) on interdisciplinary research.

Further information is available from the General Secretary, The Eugenics Society, 69 Eccleston Square, London SW1V 1PJ.
