Politics from Princeton

The Next Justice

Repairing the Supreme Court Appointments Process

Christopher L. Eisgruber

“The best short, one-volume, incisive account of what the Supreme Court actually does.”

—Linda Greenhouse

“The appointment process could gain a lot from Mr. Eisgruber’s proposal.”

—Daniel Sullivan, New York Sun

Paper $16.95 978-0-691-14352-1

Usable Theory

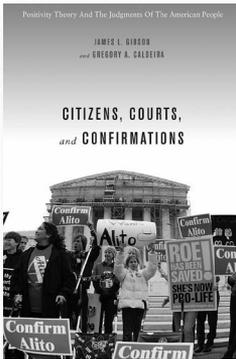

Analytic Tools for Social and Political Research

Dietrich Rueschemeyer

“Usable Theory may be the best book on social theory since Weber’s Economy and Society. If Rueschemeyer is right that integrated sets of confirmed and general propositions about the social world will one day be possible (and I think he is), this book will contribute greatly to that achievement.”

—James Mahoney, Northwestern University

Paper $27.95 978-0-691-12959-4
Cloth $65.00 978-0-691-12958-7

Citizens, Courts, and Confirmations

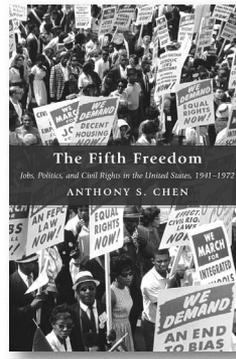

Positivity Theory and the Judgments of the American People

James L. Gibson & Gregory A. Caldeira

“A truly comprehensive look at the dynamics of public support for the Supreme Court and for a nominee. This is the single best study of this subject, and the most theoretically rich study to date.”

—Valerie Hoekstra, Arizona State University

Paper $24.95 978-0-691-13988-3
Cloth $65.00 978-0-691-13987-6

The Fifth Freedom

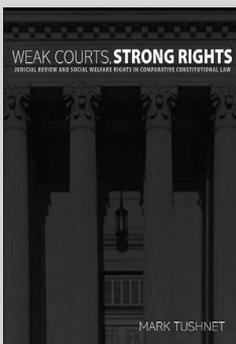

Jobs, Politics, and Civil Rights in the United States, 1941–1972

Anthony S. Chen

“This is an important, meticulously researched, and engagingly written contribution to our understanding of the origins and consequences of civil rights policies in employment.”

—Paul Frymer, Princeton University

Princeton Studies in American Politics: Historical, International, and Comparative Perspectives
Ira Katznelson, Martin Shefter, and Theda Skocpol, Series Editors
Paper $24.95 978-0-691-13953-1
Cloth $65.00 978-0-691-13457-4

Weak Courts, Strong Rights

Judicial Review and Social Welfare Rights in Comparative Constitutional Law

Mark Tushnet

“Tushnet explores two prominent questions that constitutional drafters must ask: What powers of judicial review should courts have? and What rights should be enumerated? . . . Tushnet’s ambitious agenda . . . is equally important for political scientists and comparative legal scholars.”

—Theresa J. Squatrito, Comparative Political Studies

Paper $24.95 978-0-691-14320-0

Republic.com 2.0

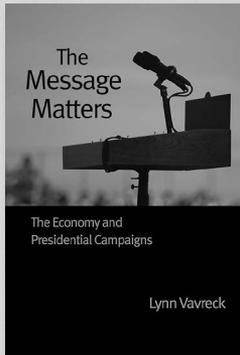

Cass R. Sunstein

“Republic.com 2.0 is a refreshing counter to overly optimistic perspectives on the internet and democracy, and Sunstein turns Utopian visions of the internet enabling individuals to gain access to exactly what they are interested in—“The Daily Me”—into a critical assessment of its potential for undermining democratic discourse.”

—William Dutton, Times Higher Education

Paper $19.95 978-0-691-14328-6

Politics from Princeton

The Message Matters

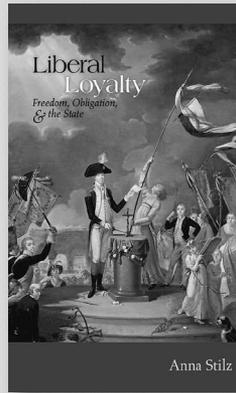

The Economy and Presidential Campaigns

Lynn Vavreck

“Vavreck’s creative theorizing and informative historical analysis will change the way political scientists think about presidential campaigns. While giving campaign strategists their overdue due, she also sheds invaluable light on how political contexts shape their strategies and their odds of success.”

—Larry M. Bartels, author of Unequal Democracy

Paper $24.95 978-0-691-13963-0
Cloth $65.00 978-0-691-13962-3

Liberal Loyalty

Freedom, Obligation, and the State
Anna Stilz

“Stilz has a fresh approach to a central problem in contemporary political thought. She writes with clarity and confidence, and provides an original defense of the idea of constitutional patriotism in combination with a strong critique of liberal nationalism.”

—Jan-Werner Müller,
Princeton University

Cloth $29.95 978-0-691-13914-2

Taming the Beloved Beast

How Medical Technology Costs are Destroying Our Health Care System
Daniel Callahan

“Dan Callahan is one of the most important thinkers in health care today. Love him or hate him, you need to reckon with his ideas. Taming the Beloved Beast is a direct challenge to the central health care issue of our time—the capability and cost of medical care.”

—David Cutler, Harvard University
Cloth $29.95 978-0-691-14236-4 October

After Adam Smith

A Century of Transformation in Politics and Political Economy

Murray Milgate & Shannon C. Stimson

“After Adam Smith is a superior piece of scholarship, engagingly written and impressively erudite. Milgate and Stimson are first-rate historians of economic ideas.”

—Ian Shapiro, Yale University
Cloth $35.00 978-0-691-14037-7

How Wars End

Dan Reiter

“A very fine book. How Wars End is the first serious attempt to integrate the information and commitment perspectives on war termination, and the first book that I am aware of to focus so systematically on the connection between war termination and war aims. It is hard to imagine how any course with a substantial focus on rationalist explanations of war could neglect to assign this book.”

—Benjamin Valentino,
Dartmouth College

Paper $26.95 978-0-691-14060-5
Cloth $65.00 978-0-691-14059-9 October

Made with Words

Hobbes on Language, Mind, and Politics

Philip Pettit

“This book is the best short introduction to Hobbes’s philosophy now available. . . . Pettit, one of the world’s leading philosophers, brings a fresh eye to the work of one of the greatest philosophers who ever lived, and he opens it up to original insights and challenging new puzzles.”

—David Runciman, author of Political Hypocrisy

Paper $19.95 978-0-691-14325-5

Politics from Princeton

Torture and Democracy

Darius Rejali

"[A] magisterial study of torture and how it has developed as a social and moral issue with a focus on developments through the last century."

—Scott Horton, Harper's Magazine

"The most rigorous treatment of the subject yet written."

—Alex Danchev,
Times Higher Education

Paper $29.95 978-0-691-14333-0

Free Trade Under Fire

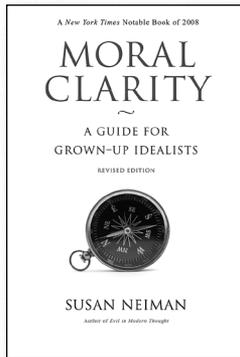

Third Edition

Douglas A. Irwin

"A wealth of reporting, both of trade-theory debates and of recent political battles in America over trade, is elegantly squeezed into the book. . . . If [Free Trade Under Fire does] not change trade sceptics' minds, it is hard to think what else would."

—Economist

Paper $22.95 978-0-691-14315-6

A New York Times Notable Book of 2008

Moral Clarity

A Guide for Grown-Up Idealists
Revised Edition

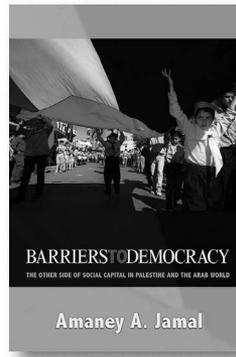

Susan Neiman

"The problem with our liberal elites, [Neiman] insists, is lame metaphysics—a lack of philosophical nerve. . . . Neiman is a subtle and energetic guide. . . . [who] writes with verve and sometimes epigrammatic wit."

—Gary Rosen, Wall Street Journal

Paper $24.95 978-0-691-14389-7

Not for sale in the Commonwealth
(except Canada)

Barriers to Democracy

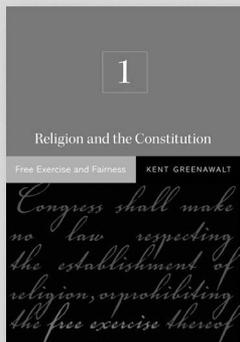

The Other Side of Social Capital in Palestine and the Arab World

Amaney A. Jamal

"Jamal's work. . . deserve[s] attention from all of those who are concerned about the troubling quality of politics in the Arab world. . . . Those engaged in democracy promotion, in particular, should read this volume closely and heed its lessons about the uneasy relationship between civil society and democracy in the Arab world."

—Steven Heydemann,
Middle East Journal

Paper $19.95 978-0-691-14099-5

Religion and the Constitution

Volumes 1 and 2

Kent Greenawalt

"Kent Greenawalt's latest masterwork. . . is written with elegance, power, and lucidity—and filled with the kind of wit, wisdom, and Wissenschaft that [his] readers have come to expect."

—John Witte, Jr.,
Constitutional Commentary

Volume 2:

Establishment and Fairness

Paper $27.95 978-0-691-14114-5

The Religious Left and Church-State Relations

Steven H. Shiffrin

"Building on the recent invigoration of progressive religion, Shiffrin's crisp and tightly-argued call for a renewed liberal support for religious freedom in law and politics is a welcome addition to the growing scholarship on the progressive resurgence."

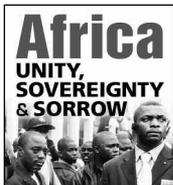

—Sarah Barringer Gordon, University of Pennsylvania

eJobs: Your Online Resource for Political Science Careers and Candidates

APSA's eJobs is a year-round, online resource for political science employment opportunities and job candidates. It contains the most comprehensive online database of political science jobs, is updated daily with new job listings and candidate resumes, and is fully searchable by field of interest, name of employer/candidate, region, keyword, position, salary, type of institution, and most recent listings.

How Does eJobs Work?

Job Candidates

APSA members can access all open job listings and post their resume online to share with prospective employers by logging in to www.apsanet.org with your MyAPSA member login. The service is free to and offered exclusively to APSA members. Only APSA members can access the job listings or post their resumes to share with prospective employers. We encourage non-members who are interested in the service to join APSA now.

Employers

Employers who are APSA Departmental Services Program (DSP) members may post an unlimited number of job listings to share with prospective candidates and may search the all available resumes free of charge. Employers who are not DSP members may advertise positions for a fee. Non-member employers who have posted a job listing can also access the candidate resumes.

Member and non-member employers can access eJobs by logging in to www.apsanet.org with their DSP login. Non-member employers: for more information on the DSP, contact dsp@apsanet.org.

Printed Job Listings in the PS: Political Science and Politics Supplement

APSA prints eJobs job listings in a supplement to the APSA journal PS: Political Science & Politics. The supplement accompanies PS each quarter (January, April, July and October) and includes job listings, upcoming conferences, tables of contents of forthcoming APSA journals, and other news in the profession. The print listing is free of charge to employers who post job listings on eJobs.

Centennial Center for Political Science & Public Affairs Research Opportunities in Washington, DC

"I spent a year at the Centennial Center while finishing my dissertation, and I couldn't have asked for a better academic home in the nation's capital. I highly recommend the Center for its top-notch facilities, welcoming staff, and community of fellow political scientists, all right in the heart of Washington."

- Brendan J. Doherty, United States Naval Academy

APSA established the Centennial Center for Political Science and Public Affairs to encourage individual research and writing in all fields of political science, to facilitate collaboration among scholars working within the discipline and across the social and behavioral sciences and humanities, and to promote communication between scholars and policymakers.

The Centennial Center assists scholars from the U.S. and abroad whose research and teaching might benefit from a stay in Washington, D.C. and access to resources available in the nation's capital. The Center also holds events to bring together the scholarly community, policymakers, the media, and the general public for discussions of broad interest.

The Centennial Center features:

- Personal work space
- High speed internet connection and
- Personal telephone extension, fax, and printer access
- Flexible scheduling for long and short-term stays
- Convenient downtown location, Metro accessible
- Meeting and conference room facilities
- Reference library
- Research-in-progress colloquia
- Community of visiting scholars

Funding Opportunities

As a result of generous contributions by members and friends, APSA has developed a number of endowments to support a diverse range of grant programs that may support stays at the Centennial Center.

Political Science Research Online

Looking for papers from an APSA Annual Meeting? Download them from APSA's PROceedings website.

All APSA Annual Meeting presenters are asked to post their work online as part of the meeting proceedings. APSA makes these papers available online through a database that allows you to search for papers using a keyword, panel title, or author name. Continue the conversations started at the conference—download papers at your convenience and continue the debate!

PROceedings is open to all individuals—not just meeting attendees or APSA members.

Find out how to download Annual Meeting papers at www.apsanet.org/conferencepapers.

Looking for Papers from Other Conferences?

Have you tried PROL? APSA, in partnership with a consortium of political science and related associations, makes over 20,000 conference papers available to you in one online resource called Political Science Research Online (PROL).

Political science conference papers from each partner are made available in a searchable format covering previous years. In the future, PROL will be the central resource for all political science preprints.

Download papers from many other conferences at www.politicalscience.org.

New Host for Online Papers in 2009

APSA is pleased to announce it has agreed to partner with the Social Science Research Network (SSRN) to advance the development of its online paper systems.

SSRN provides an outstanding solution that will improve the user experience dramatically and increase accessibility to materials produced at APSA conferences and the partners of the politicalscience.org collaboration. SSRN is already host to a large number of political science working papers and more than 200,000 papers across multiple disciplines. APSA is excited to work with SSRN, beginning with the 2009 APSA Annual Meeting.

For more information on SSRN, visit www.ssrn.com.
