

INFORMATION FOR CONTRIBUTORS

The American Journal of Germanic Linguistics and Literatures is a refereed journal published by the Society for Germanic Philology. It carries original articles, reviews, and notes on all aspects of the Germanic languages from the earliest phases to the present, including English (to 1500) and the extraterritorial varieties. Contributions are invited on the historical development of these languages, their structure (phonology, morphology, word formation, syntax), as well as semantics, lexicology, dialectology, sociolinguistics, creolistics, and language use. The scope of the journal also includes onomastics, textual studies, and linguistic analyses of literary works prior to 1700. Submissions are welcomed from all countries. Membership in the SGP is not required for publication; contributions from non-SGP members are invited. The language of publication is normally English, though high-quality manuscripts in German will be considered.
