Sophocles Revisited

Essays Presented to Sir Hugh Lloyd-Jones

Edited by JASPER GRIFFIN

Twelve leading scholars honour Sir Hugh Lloyd-Jones, Regius Professor of Greek at Oxford from 1960 to 1989, with wide-ranging and original papers on the Greek tragic poet Sophocles. They include general views of the poet, detailed work on individual plays, and essays on Sophocles in the European tradition.

Archestratos of Gela: Greek Culture and Cuisine in the Fourth Century BC

Edited with translation and commentary by S. DOUGLAS OLSON, and ALEXANDER SENS

Archestratos of Gela's Life of Luxury is a fundamental source for our understanding of the significance of food and dining, and the reception of epic poetry in the late classical period. This edition is the first to combine a critical text of the poem with a translation, a detailed commentary, and an extensive introduction.

Plutarch's Lives

Exploring Virtue and Vice

TIM DUFF

Dr Duff argues that the Parallel Lives of Plutarch are not only historical 'sources' but that they aim to inculcate in the reader the virtues of Greek philosophy and to champion the supremacy of Greek culture against a dominant Rome.
