Japanese Journal of Political Science

Executive Editor

Takashi Inoguchi, University of Niigata Prefecture, Japan

The Japanese Journal of Political Science is a broadly based journal aiming to cover developments across a wide range of countries and specialisms. Its scope is wide-ranging both in terms of subject matter and method. The journal features articles in all fields of political science, especially where these have a conceptual thrust including political theory, comparative politics, political behaviour, political institutions, public policy, and international relations. At the same time, the journal seeks to attract the best comparative articles featuring both the domestic and international politics of Japan and East Asia. Each issue contains full length research articles, review articles and book reviews.

Political Science Research and Methods

THE JOURNAL OF THE EUROPEAN POLITICAL SCIENCE ASSOCIATION

Political Science Research and Methods (PSRM) is a general political science journal dedicated to publishing original scholarly work of the highest quality from all subfields of political science.

PSRM seeks research that applies rigorous methods to empirical or theoretical problems and promotes a rigorous scientific approach to the study of politics. Work at the intersection of political science and related disciplines such as economics and sociology is also welcomed.

Journal of Public Policy

Editors

Anthony Bertelli, New York University, USA

Peter John, University College London, UK

Fabrizio Gilardi, University of Zurich, Switzerland

Andrew Whitford, University of Georgia, USA

The Journal of Public Policy applies social science theories and concepts to significant political, economic and social issues and to the ways in which public policies are made. Its articles deal with topics of concern to public policy scholars in America, Europe, Japan and other advanced industrial nations. The journal often publishes articles that cut across disciplines, such as environmental issues, international political economy, regulatory policy and European Union processes. Its peer reviewers come from up to a dozen social science disciplines and countries across three continents, thus ensuring both analytic rigour and accuracy in reference to national and policy context.

World Politics

Published for the
Princeton Institute for International and Regional Affairs

Chair of the Editorial Board

Atul Kohli, Princeton University, USA

World Politics, founded in 1948, is an internationally renowned quarterly journal of political science produced under the editorial sponsorship of the Princeton Institute for International and Regional Studies at Princeton University. The journal is published in both print and online versions. Open to contributions by all scholars, World Politics invites submission of research articles that make theoretical and empirical contributions to the literature, review articles, and research notes bearing on problems in international relations and comparative politics. The journal does not publish articles on current affairs, policy pieces, or narratives of a journalistic nature. Articles submitted for consideration are unsolicited, except for review articles, which are usually commissioned.
