TEACHING POLITICAL SCIENCE MATTERS

2025

Join us for the 17th American Political Science Association's Teaching & Learning Conference

FEBRUARY 7–9, 2025 | ALEXANDRIA, VA

Join political science teacher-scholars for the American Political Science Association's Teaching & Learning Conference (TLC), February 7–9, 2025, in Alexandria, Virginia! The APSA TLC is a unique meeting to promote greater understanding of high-impact practices and innovative methodologies for the political science classroom.

We invite political science teacher-scholars to explore the conference theme, “Teaching Political Science Matters,” at the Westin Alexandria Old Town. The conference provides a forum for scholars to participate in the scholarship of teaching and learning, share pedagogical techniques, and discuss trends in political science education.

ABOUT THE AMERICAN POLITICAL SCIENCE ASSOCIATION (APSA)

Founded in 1903, the American Political Science Association (APSA) is the leading professional organization for the study of political science and serves more than 11,000 members in over 100 countries. With a range of programs and services for individuals, departments, and institutions, APSA brings together political scientists from all fields of inquiry, regions, and occupational endeavors within and outside academe in order to deepen our understanding of politics, democracy, and citizenship throughout the world. The direct advancement of knowledge is at the core of APSA activities.

We promote scholarly communication in political science through a variety of initiatives including publishing four distinguished journals: American Political Science Review, Perspectives on Politics, PS: Political Science & Politics, and the Journal of Political Science Education.
