

Announcements/Chronique

REASON IN ETHICS

The Department of Philosophy, Simon Fraser University announces that the eighth annual Simon Fraser – University of Victoria Philosophy Conference will be held in Vancouver, February 8–10, 1980. It will be addressed to issues in meta-ethics. The sessions will be:

Kurt Baier (Pittsburgh), “Practical Reason and the Good”; R.B. Brandt (Michigan), “Logic and Facts in Ethical Appraisal”; Ronald de Sousa (Toronto), “Arguments from Nature”; Gilbert Harman (Princeton), “Naturalism and Autonymous Ethics”; Thomas Nagel (Princeton), “The Objectivity of Ethics”; Kai Nielsen (Calgary), “Morality and Rationality”. Commentators have yet to be selected. Further information may be obtained by writing to the Department of Philosophy, Simon Fraser University, Burnaby, British Columbia, Canada V5A 1S6.