

Who Really are the Best and Worst Presidents?

AVAILABLE NOW

Taking a distinctly new approach in Recarving Rushmore: Ranking The Presidents on Peace, Prosperity, and Liberty, Dr. Ivan Eland profiles each U.S. president on the merits of his policies and whether those strategies contributed to peace, prosperity, and liberty, and on how effective each president was in fulfilling his oath to uphold the Constitution. Eland shares his findings in this unique assessment of those who have held the office of President of the United States.

“This insightful and crucial book provides an inspiring vision for both conservatives and liberals on the crucial need to rein in White House power.”

—RON PAUL, U.S. Congressman

“Eland shatters the grand illusion that great presidents are those who wage war or deprive people of their liberty, either here or abroad.”

—JONATHAN BEAN, Professor of History, Southern Illinois University

“Whether you agree that Coolidge was a good president and FDR a bad one, you’ll never again glibly think to yourself that it’s obvious which presidents are good and bad. It isn’t—and Eland shows us why.”

—RICHARD SHENKMAN, Editor, History News Network; author, Presidential Ambition and Legends, Lies, and Cherished Myths of American History

THE HISTORY OF PARLIAMENT
THE HOUSE OF COMMONS
1820–1832

Editor: D. R. Fisher

This new set in the widely praised History of Parliament series contains biographies of over 1,000 MPs, surveys of elections and constituency politics and an introduction which analyses and sets them in context.

Including the crucially important passage of the first Reform Act, The House of Commons 1820-1832 constitutes the most comprehensive survey of British and Irish History during the period.

Instructions for contributors

MIH serves as a focal point and forum for scholarship in intellectual history and related fields. Though its primary focus is on Europe and the United States, it also devotes attention to intellectual and cultural exchanges between the West, the non-West, and the Americas. It encompasses the period from 1650 to the present. MIH is concerned with this era's intellectual discourses - with understanding the contextual origins and reception of texts, and with recovering their historical meaning. The term "texts" encompass various forms of intellectual and cultural expression, including political thought, philosophy, religion, literature, the social sciences, the natural sciences, and the visual arts.

1. SUBMISSIONS

Articles submitted for consideration should be sent to Modern Intellectual History, Boston University, Department of History, 226 Bay State Road, Boston, MA 02215, USA. Email mih@bu.edu

Submission of a paper will be taken to imply that it is unpublished (even in a language other than English) and is not being considered for publication elsewhere. Upon acceptance of a paper, the author will be asked to assign copyright (on certain conditions) to Cambridge University Press.

Contributors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce any material in which they do not hold copyright for worldwide publication in all forms and media, including electronic publication, and for ensuring that the appropriate acknowledgements are included in their manuscript.

2. MANUSCRIPT PREPARATION

Contributors must follow the layout and stylistic conventions of MIH. Detailed Instructions for contributors can be obtained from the Web at http://journals.cambridge.org/journal_ModernIntellectualHistory.
