

Area Studies

Books and Journals from Cambridge University Press

Cambridge has a vibrant programme of books and journals spanning all geographical areas of the world.

We publish prestigious book series and stand-alone titles that analyse regions through a variety of disciplines in both the humanities and social sciences, ranging from politics, economics and history through to anthropology and religion.

Our multi- and interdisciplinary journals regularly achieve high Impact Factors and lead their respective fields.

Law

Books and Journals from Cambridge University Press

Cambridge have an established and ever expanding academic law list in public and private law subjects crossing books and journals aimed at a global readership.

Particular strengths lie in international law, human rights and transitional justice, transnational and comparative law, jurisprudence, and legal history.

We also publish a growing number of titles with an inter-disciplinary and socio-legal approach.

NOTES ON STYLE FOR CONTRIBUTORS

The editors ask authors to observe the following notes on style in preparing their submissions. A full style guide can be downloaded from journals.cambridge.org/JAL.

General

Articles should be no longer than 12,000 words (including footnotes). Please also provide an abstract of no more than 150 words and five or six keywords. Use footnotes, rather than endnotes.

Spelling

Use British English, but with the “ize”, not “ise”, suffix.

Capitalization

Please use lower case for professional titles and generic terms such as government, director, minister, common law. The titles of treaties, acts, agreements, declarations, resolutions, conventions, etc should be capitalized and not italicized.

Foreign words and phrases

Truly foreign words and phrases (except proper nouns) should be italicized and followed by a translation in square brackets. Please do not italicize words, phrases and abbreviations generally accepted in the English language.

Abbreviations

Do not use full stops for abbreviations or for initials within names. Article, chapter, section, ordinance, proclamation, paragraph, etc should be in full and in lower case in the text, but abbreviated in footnotes to art, chap, sec, ord, proc, para etc. Abbreviated forms used in the text must be in full in the first instance, followed by the abbreviated form/acronym in brackets. Per cent to be written in full in the text; use % in footnotes.

Punctuation

Punctuation should be “outside” quotation marks (unless the punctuation is clearly part of the quotation) and footnote cues should come after punctuation. Use “smart” double quotation marks, followed by single quotation marks within a quotation. Quotations more than five lines long in the text should be indented.

Numerals and dates

Numbers and ordinals from one to ten inclusive should be spelled out; after that use digits. However, always use digits for footnotes, percentages and references to sections or pages of a document.
