Kantian Review is published once yearly and contains articles, review articles and reviews written in English which are selected for their quality and relevance to current debate on issues arising from Kant's work. It also includes scholarly or historical accounts of Kant's texts and their background. In general, articles should not exceed 10,000 words.

Articles for submission should be sent to the Editors, Kantian Review, Edward Llwyd Building, University of Wales Aberystwyth, Penglais, Aberystwyth, SY23 3DA, Tel.: 01970 623111, Fax: 01970 622709, e-mail: hlw@aber.ac.uk.

Books for review should be sent to the same address. Those wishing to suggest books for review should contact the Editors, or, in North America, Richard Aquila, Department of Philosophy, University of Tennessee, Knoxville, TN 37996.

Copyright

Contributors submitting a manuscript do so on the understanding that the work has not been published previously and, should the editors accept it for publication, that (a) the authors obtain the necessary permission to use material already protected by copyright; and (b) copyright in printed and electronic forms in articles published in Kantian Review will be assigned to the journal.

The right to reproduce the contribution photographically is granted to the author(s), provided that copies made are not offered for sale. The right to reprint in a different publication is granted to the author provided that the reprinted contribution (a) does not appear within 12 months of its initial appearance in Kantian Review, and (b) acknowledges Kantian Review as the place of first publication.

Proofs

Contributors will be expected to check and return the page-proofs of their articles within 14 days of receipt. This will usually be in October of each year.

Copies

Each contributor and reviewer will receive one complimentary copy of the issue of the journal in which their contribution appears.
