

CORRESPONDENCE

TO THE EDITOR OF Philosophy

McTAGGART

SIR,

I am editing for publication a volume of philosophical papers by the late Dr. John McTaggart Ellis McTaggart of Trinity College, Cambridge, and am unable to trace a MS. entitled "The Empirical Element in Metaphysics." This was the last address he delivered to the Moral Sciences Club at Trinity in 1923 or 1924.

Might I be permitted to ask of any reader who possesses the MS., or knows what became of it, that he kindly communicate with me?

Yours, etc.,

S. V. KEELING.
