Aristotle And His Medieval Interpreters

Canadian Journal of Philosophy
Supplementary Volume 17
edited by Richard Bosley and Martin Tweedale

Aristotle's works are a storehouse of theories, concepts, ideas and puzzles which were to dominate thought for the intellectual cultures of the Greek Near East, the Latin West, and Arabic Islam for two millennia. In this volume, seven well-known scholars (Gareth Matthews, Deborah Black, E.J. Ashworth, Joseph Owens, Eleonore Stump, Norman Kretzman and Marilyn Adams) scrutinize this peripatetic legacy in original essays.

Journal of Philosophical Logic

Published under the auspices of the Association for Symbolic Logic

Editors:

J. Michael Dunn, Dept. of Philosophy, Indiana University, Bloomington, USA; Terence Parsons, Dept. of Philosophy, University of California, Irvine, CA, USA; Anil Gupta, Dept. of Philosophy, Indiana University, Bloomington, USA

The Journal of Philosophical Logic publishes papers that utilize formal methods or that deal with topics in logical theory, such as:

- Contributions to branches of logical theory directly related to philosophical concerns, such as inductive logic, modal logic, deontic logic, quantum logic, tense logic, free logic, logic of questions, logic of commands, logic of preference, logic of conditionals, many-valued logic, and relevance logics.
- Contributions to philosophical discussions that utilize the machinery of formal logic, as in recent treatments of abstract entities, non-existent possibles, essentialism, existence, propositional attitudes, meaning and truth.
- Discussions of philosophical issues relating to logic and the logical structure of language, such as conventionalism in logic, ontic commitment, logical or semantic paradoxes, the logic of hypotheses and of pre-suppositions, constructivism, and extensionality.
- Philosophical work relating to specific sciences (such as linguistics, history of logic, or physics), with an emphasis on foundational problems, and making use of logical theory. Some instances of recent work of this kind are the treatments of universal grammar, pragmatics, conceptions of possibility, theories and mathematical truth in the history of philosophy, formalization of scientific theories, or logical structure in quantum mechanics.

The Journal of Philosophical Logic is published under the auspices of the Association for Symbolic Logic.

Journal of Philosophical Logic is surveyed by Current Contents/Arts & Humanities, Arts & Humanities Citation Index, Informationsdienst fur Philosophie, Linguistics & Language Behavior Abstracts, Mathematical Reviews, MLA International Bibliography, Referativnyi Zhurnal, Sociological Abstracts, The Philosopher's Index, Zentralblatt fur Mathematik, IBZ/IBR, Linguistic Bibliography.

The Journal of Medicine and Philosophy

A Forum for Bioethics and Philosophy of Medicine

Sponsored by the Center for Ethics, Medicine, and Public Issues, a joint project of Baylor College of Medicine, the Institute of Religion, and Rice University, in collaboration with the School of Medicine, University of Connecticut Health Center

Editor:

H. Tristram Engelhardt, Jr., Center for Ethics, Medicine, and Public Issues, Baylor College of Medicine and Philosophy Department, Rice University, Houston, TX, USA

Associate Editor:

Stuart F. Spicker, School of Medicine, University of Connecticut Health Center, Farmington, USA

The Journal of Medicine and Philosophy came into existence in 1976 when the fields of bioethics and the philosophy of medicine were in statu nascendi. It was initially sponsored by the Society for Health and Human Values and sustained primarily by North American readers and authors. But now, over a decade later, bioethics and the philosophy of medicine have become fields of research and teaching around the world. The Journal's associations have grown so that it now has connections with the European Society for Philosophy of Medicine and Health Care and the Japanese Association for Philosophical and Ethical Research in Medicine; the Editorial Advisory Board has taken on an international character. In 1989 The Journal of Medicine and Philosophy expanded to a bimonthly from a quarterly. The need for a scholarly vehicle encompassing the international scope of contemporary research, accommodating the scholar's writing on the subject and covering the topics that are now of daily concern is filled by The Journal of Medicine and Philosophy.

The Journal of Medicine and Philosophy is surveyed by Biological Abstracts, Current Contents/Social & Behavioral Sciences, CC Health Services Administration, ASCA, Social Sciences Citation Index, Sociological Abstracts, Philosopher's Index, IBZ/IBR, Index Medicus MEDLINE, European Centre of the History of Medicine, Health Lawyer, Guide to Social Science & Religion in Periodical Literature, Humanities Index, Excerpta Medica, Academic Abstracts, the International Bibliography of the Social Sciences.

Philosophical Studies

An International Journal for Philosophy in the Analytic Tradition

Editor-in-Chief:

Stewart Cohen, Arizona State University

Special Editions Editor:

Keith Lehrer, University of Arizona

Philosophical Studies was founded in 1950 by Herbert Feigl and Wilfrid Sellars to provide a periodical dedicated to work in analytic philosophy. The journal is devoted to the rapid publication of analytical contributions, particularly (but not exclusively) in epistemology, philosophical logic, the philosophy of language and ethics. Papers applying formal techniques to philosophical problems are particularly welcome. The papers published are models of clarity and precision, dealing with some significant philosophical issues; they are intelligible to philosophers whose expertise lies outside the subject matter of the article. A diligent reader of the journal will be kept informed of the major problems and contributions of contemporary analytic philosophy.

Philosophical Studies is surveyed by Bulletin Signaletique, Current Contents/Arts & Humanities, Arts & Humanities Citation Index, Informationsdienst fur Philosophie, Linguistic & Language Behavior Abstracts, MLA International Bibliography, The Philosopher's Index, Referativnyi Zhurnal, Revue Philosophique de Louvain, IBZ/IBR, Mathematical Reviews.

Studies in East European Thought

(formerly Studies in Soviet Thought)

Editors:

Edward M. Swiderski (Managing Editor), IEO, Switzerland; Guido Kung, Institut de l'Europe Orientale, Fribourg, Switzerland; Nikolaus Lobkowicz, Katholische Universität, Eichstatt, Germany

Studies in East European Thought is conceived in the spirit of the tradition established by its predecessor, Studies in Soviet Thought, which for more than thirty years has been the premier philosophical journal devoted to Western studies of Marxist-Leninist philosophy in the Soviet Union and elsewhere in the Soviet orbit, as well as studies of classical Russian (non-Marxist) philosophy. The new journal is intended to provide a forum for Western-language (English and German) writings on philosophy and philosophers who identify with the history and cultures of East and Central Europe, including Russia, Ukraine, and the Baltic States. The editors do not advocate a program or defend a position as to the nature and limits of philosophy in its manifold interactions with other disciplines and in its role in articulating cultural values and marking intellectual dissonances. They welcome descriptive, critical, comparative, and historical studies of individuals, schools, currents, and institutions whose works and influence are widely regarded in their own environments to be philosophical or provide insight into the socio-cultural conditions of philosophical life in Eastern Europe.

Studies in East European Thought is surveyed by ABC POL, SCI, Bulletin Signaletique, Current Contents/Arts & Humanities, CC/Social & Behavioral Sciences, Arts & Humanities Citation Index, Social Sciences Citation Index, Historical Abstracts, Informationsdienst für Philosophie, Revue Philosophique de Louvain, The Philosopher's Index, IBZ/IBR.

Synthese

An International Journal for Epistemology,
Methodology and Philosophy of Science

Editor-in-Chief:

Jaakko Hintikka, Dept. of Philosophy, Boston University, USA

Editors:

James H. Fetzer, Dept. of Philosophy, University of Minnesota, USA; Risto Hilpinen, Dept. of Philosophy, University of Turku, Finland; Paul Humphreys, Dept. of Philosophy, University of Virginia, USA; Barry Richards, Imperial College of Science, Technology and Medicine, London, UK

Synthese publishes articles in the theory of knowledge, the general methodological problems of science, such as the problems of scientific discovery and scientific interest, of induction and probability, of causation and of the role of mathematics, statistics and logic in science, the methodological and foundational problems of the different departmental sciences, insofar as they have philosophical interest, those aspects of symbolic logic and of the foundations of mathematics which are relevant to the philosophy and methodology of science, and those facets of the history and sociology of science which are important for contemporary topical pursuits.

Particular attention is paid to the role of mathematical, logical and linguistic methods in the general methodology of science and the foundations of the different sciences, be they physical, biological, behavioral or social.

Most of the issues of Synthese are organized into thematic issues, taking the character of symposia dealing with described themes.

Theory and Society is a forum for the international community of scholars that publishes theoretically-informed analyses of social processes. It opens its pages to authors working at the frontiers of social analysis, regardless of discipline. Its subject matter ranges from prehistory to contemporary affairs, from treatments of single individuals and national societies to world culture, from discussions of theory to methodological critique, from First World to Third World – but always in the effort to bring together theory, criticism and concrete observation.

Theory and Society is abstracted/indexed in Current Contents/Social and Behavioral Sciences, International Political Science Abstracts, Social Science Citation Index, Sociological Abstracts, Sociology of Education Abstracts, Telos.

The past two decades have witnessed fascinating and controversial advances in the biological sciences. One may think, for instance, of methods for analyzing the basic molecular units of heredity; of proposals and clarifications of the appropriate methods of classifying organisms; of exciting new ideas about the nature of the fossil record and their implications for the elucidation of evolutionary mechanisms; and of ways in which the biological study of behavior has been extended, theoretically and experimentally, and of supposed implications for humankind. To add to these internal issues, the outside world has also seen much debate on biology – in the world of education, for instance.

These and other issues have made biology one of the most exhilarating areas of science, and have aroused in biologists and philosophers an awareness that there is a need for meta-theoretical analysis, both about the very nature of biology, as well as about its social implications.

Biology and Philosophy is aimed at a broad readership, drawn from both the sciences and the humanities. The journal subscribes to no specific school of biology, nor of philosophy, and publishes work from authors of all persuasions and all disciplines. The editorial board reflects this attitude in its composition and its worldwide membership.

Each issue of Biology and Philosophy carries one or more discussions or comparative reviews, permitting the in-depth study of important works and topics.

The journal is abstracted/indexed in Reference Update.
