As a New Series of the JOURNAL OF THE ROYAL ASIATIC SOCIETY is now commenced, it is proposed to issue a detailed INDEX to the Twenty Volumes of the First Series, just completed. This Index, the execution of which will be entrusted to a competent Scholar, is intended to be of a minute and exhaustive character. "He has, finally, spared no pains to add to the value of his book by a series of appendices, contributed by various hands, on many subjects incidental to it: on Greek inscriptions found in the island, on the modern dialect, on the geology and ornithology, on deep-sea soundings, Mediterranean currents, and more still. The book, therefore, is one of standard value, and distinctly fills a vacuum and supplies a want."—Pall Mall Gazette, August 25th.

DAS LEBEN UND DIE LEHREN DES MOHAMMAD.

Nach bisher grösstentheils unbenutzten Quellen bearbeitet von A. SPRENGER, Professor in Bern. 3 Bände Preis 36sh. Das vorliegende religionsgeschichtliche Werk darf unbedingt als eine Leistung ersten Ranges bezeichnet werden. Der gelehrte Verfasser hat seinen vieljährigen Aufenthalt in Indien als Vorsteher aller mohammadanischen Hochschulen eifrigst benutzt um sich auf sein Unternehmen, die Geschichte des grossen molismischen Propheten zu schreiben, tüchtig vorzubereiten. Ein Kenner der theologischen Literatur der Araber und Perser, wie ein zweiter in Europa wohl nicht existirt, hat er ein unermessliches, bis jetzt meist noch gar nicht gekanntes Quellenmaterial zusammengebracht, durchforscht und gesichtet, und darauf hin eine der wichtigsten Erscheinungen der Weltgeschichte auf eine höchst unparteiische, klare und anschauliche Weise in diesem Werke zur Darstellung gebracht. Darum ist dies Werk, welches eine Masse interessanter Details bietet, das allerlei Excurse enthält und welches auch alle wichtigen Stellen des Koran in frischer Uebertragung mittheilt, nicht sowohl allen Theologen, Historikern u. Orientalisten, sondern jedem Gebildeten angelegentlichst zu empfehlen. Besonders werden es aber die öffentlichen Bibliotheken nicht entbehren können.

"Dictionaries are a class of books not usually esteemed light reading; but no intelligent man were to be pitted who should find himself shut up on a rainy day in a lonely house in the dreariest part of Salisbury Plain, with no other means of recreation than that which Mr. Wedgwood's Dictionary of Etymology could afford him. He would read it through from cover to cover at a sitting, and only regret that he had not the second volume to begin upon forthwith. It is a very able book, of great research, full of delightful surprises, a repertory of the fairy tales of linguistic science."—Spectator.

FIFTH VOLUME.

The Buddhism of the Pali Texts compared with Foism and Lamaism.

To one of these Volumes explanatory Maps and Illustrations will be added.

The First Volume, in treating of the History of the Indo-Chinese nations, is intended to fill a void which has existed too long in the scientific department of European Literature. This defect was not unknown, and several attempts have been made to rectify it, but they did not succeed for want of a positive foundation to rest upon. On their native soil only the requisite materials could be collected; and the author has availed himself of his sojourn in the kingdoms of Ultra-India to translate the historical books extant there, and to write down the oral traditions, which, although they abound among the aboriginal tribes, have never received the attention they well deserve. The following volumes (the second, third, and fourth) contain the journal; and in relating the incidents of the voyage, or sketching the customs of the people met with, the description will aim at delineating the mental and intellectual development of the nations of Eastern-Asia, principally, and first, that of the Buddhists in Ultra-India. To illustrate their literature original translations of their poetry, romances, and fables, will be given. In the last volume, the author proposes picturing the Buddhism in the form it exists in the countries of South-eastern Asia, and such as he had facilities to study by his visits to the monasteries in Birma and Siam, and his long intercourse with the monks inhabiting them. As the home voyage offered some opportunities for observations on the Foism as well in China and Japan as on the Lamaism, which is followed by Mongols, Burats, and Kalmucks, some important points of this widely spread religion may receive new elucidations by their comparative analysis.

TRÜBNER'S American & Oriental Literary Record.

A MONTHLY REGISTER of the most important Works published in North and South America, in India, China, and the British Colonies: with occasional Notes on German, Dutch, Danish, French, Italian, Spanish, Portuguese, and Russian Books—Nos. 1 to 13 are now ready.

PUBLISHERS' ADDRESS.

In completing our first year's issue, we cannot refrain from expressing our warmest thanks for the kind support given to us. The interest excited by our monthly issues has been exceedingly gratifying, showing, as it does, that we have not been mistaken in our estimate of the wants of a large number of literary men. From all parts of Europe and the East, as well as from North and South America, we have received substantial proofs that this our Index of new facts, new opinions, and new thoughts in the hitherto unrecorded current Literature of the World, has been of some service in promoting that catholicity in the acquaintance with Literature, the spread of which is a far surer guide to permanent peace than all the diplomacy and commercial treaties in the world.

In our twelve numbers we have recorded no less than 4,360 works in different languages—a larger number than have ever been collected before in any similar publication.

IN AMERICAN LITERATURE, in addition to our synopsis of the contents of periodical publications, we have given particulars of 1,775 volumes, nine-tenths of which have been published during the past year. Of these, 222 are Theological, 165 Historical, 129 Poetical, 113 Novels, 117 Works for the Young, 99 Biographical, 77 Medical, 67 Legal, 66 Geographical (including Books of Travel), 53 Commercial, 45 Political, 38 Philological, 35 treat on Natural History, 43 on General and Practical Science, 33 on Military Matters (in addition to 186 named in our list of American Military Books), 22 on Agriculture, 20 on Navigation and Naval Science, 20 on the Theory and Practice of Education, 19 on Conchology, 13 on Philosophy and Metaphysics, 13 on Mathematics, 12 on Geology, 11 on Photography, 12 on Freemasonry, 5 on Architecture, 4 on Bibliography, 3 on Astronomy, and the remainder on Criticism, Belles Lettres, etc., etc., etc.

From CANADA we have received 110 books, and we hope to continue a systematic record of the literature of a country so closely connected with England, which has not yet received the attention it deserves.

IN MEXICAN LITERATURE, we have given an account of 22 important works relating to the History, Geography, Literature, Languages, and Social State of that interesting country, among which are the valuable and important works of Don Francisco Pimentel, and the Licentiate Manuel Orozco y Berra on the Indigenous Languages of Mexico, etc.; D. Joaquin Garcia Icazbalceta's Collection of Documents on the Early History of Mexico; and Beristain de Souza's invaluable record of the Literature of Spanish America.

Of CUBAN LITERATURE we have recorded 69 books, being every important work issued in the Island during the last ten years.

From BRAZIL we have had 85 different works, nearly all of which have been published during the last three years.

Our list of PERUVIAN LITERATURE consists of 135 works, and presents a pretty complete account of all that have been published in Peru during the last three years.

The LITERATURE OF THE ARGENTINE REPUBLIC has never before had so complete a bibliography. The 128 books recorded present, as nearly as can be obtained, a complete list of the books published in the various parts of that Republic since 1812.

The record of ENGLISH BOOKS PUBLISHED IN INDIA present a total of 343, on every variety of subject, from 1816 to the present time.

From CHINA we have had but 40 English Books published since 1858. The native literature we have not yet begun to record, but we hope to commence this in an early number. Some idea of its extent may be gathered from the fact communicated by one of our correspondents, that a mere list of the Mongol, Tibetan, and other books published at Pekin, would take an efficient scholar one month's hard and close labour.

THE LITERATURE OF AUSTRALIA we have only just begun to register; this we hope to carry into completion in our next year's issue.

The NATIVE LITERATURE OF INDIA we deem as important as any portion of our issue. Most of it is printed in very limited editions, of from 100 to 250 copies, which are soon distributed, and the very name of many a work of real interest is thus lost to literature. The importance of our endeavour to procure for European Libraries and Scholars copies of all such works will at once be manifest, and our columns will often, we think, hereafter be referred to for accounts of such books, recorded in no other quarter. We have given an account of 411 Sanskrit works, 29 Gujarati, 78 Hindustani, 93 Hindi, 105 Marathi, 369 Bengali, 28 Malay, 13 Malayalman, and 25 Canarese books, most of which have been now for the first time introduced to Europe.

The Literature relating to the Dutch possessions in India, printed both in Holland and India, of which we have given 78 distinct works, is of great interest.

Of Turkish Books we have recorded 55, printed at Constantinople.

One or two lists of works on special subjects we have given in fulfilment of our promise in our first number. The Literature relating to the Zendavesta and the Zoroastrian faith, next to the Jewish, perhaps the oldest religion in the world, is of special interest. In our fifth number will be found a list of 120 different works containing the fullest account of the Literature of this subject yet produced. In future numbers, we hope to add to this list from materials at present in our possession. Another topic to which we have given attention is the Literature of Hindu Law, and in our tenth number will be found a very important account of the original and reprinted text books on this subject.

Perhaps the most remarkable literary feature of the past year has been the celebration of Dante's birth. We have recorded 134 works in Italian, French, German and English, published, for the most part, in 1865, relating to the illustrious poet.

The civil war in the United States gave a remarkable impetus to the production of military literature, and we thought it desirable to give a complete account of modern American works on this subject; this account, embracing 186 distinct works, will be found in our fifth number.

From this Summary of our Proceedings our Subscribers will see how far we have fulfilled the promise of our first number; as to the future—supported as we hope to be even more extensively than heretofore—we purpose rendering our record of Literature generally far more complete and comprehensive.

To our Bibliographies of the Hispano-American Literatures we shall shortly add a very full account of Mexican Literature during the last ten years, and details of the works published in Guatemala, Chili, Venezuela, New Granada, Equador, and Bolivia, rendering this department as perfect as possible. Of Persian, Arabic, and Turkish Literature we shall give some important lists. Of Jewish Literature in Hebrew we have interesting matter in preparation. And as a new feature, we hope to find space for some valuable Geographical, Historical, Medical, Legal, and other Bibliographies. Our aim is to be useful, to record facts rather than opinions, and though we hold ourselves free to express an opinion upon every topic that comes before us, we shall never do this in a dogmatic spirit. We ask our subscribers to give publicity to our labours, to make us better known, and to aid us in increasing the number of our supporters. By doing this they will encourage us to use every means in our power to increase the value and interest of our monthly issues.

A CLEAR COMPLEXION,

Sparkling with ruddy tinge, free from pimples, and glowing beneath the natural peach-bloom of a healthy skin, can only result from HEALTHY DIGESTIVE ORGANS AND PURITY OF THE BLOOD. It is from WITHIN that we must evolve external beauty. PARR'S LIFE PILLS secure perfect digestion, purify the blood, and speedily remove all pimples, blotches, and roughness, which are the sure signs of bad digestion or impure blood. They are the only effectual means of securing the reality, instead of the counterfeit, of a clear and beautiful complexion.

MONT HYMET, white ... 16s. per doz.

"WHITE HYMET, although full of body and flavour, would suit to a marvel the first course of fish."—Times, Sept. 7, 1865.

"The WHITE HYMET, once tasted, will never be given up for brandied cheap sherries."—London Review, July 22, 1865.

"The WHITE HYMETTUS, besides its delicious name, is not only a good wine of its kind, but its kind has the promise of great merit. The only thing that all these Greek wines want is age."—Saturday Review, Aug. 12, 1865.

MONT HYMET, red 16s. per doz

"I wish I may never drink worse liquid than my HYMET."—Punch, Aug. 5, 1865. (See Mr. Naggleton.)

KEFFESIA, white 20s. per doz

"The WHITE KEFFESIA, at 1s. 8d. per bottle, possesses a delicacy we have rarely met with in any other wine."—Times, Sep. 7, 1865.

"The WHITE KEFFESIA may be compared with a genuine light sherry."—Saturday Review, Aug. 12.

KEFFESIA, red..... 20s. per doz.

"The KEFFESIA of 1862 will hold its own with all but the highest class of Burgundy; and though a cheap wine (it costs 20s.), it is not such a vin du pays as you get at a Palais Royal restaurant."—Saturday Review, Aug. 12, 1865.

SANTORIN 20s. per doz.

Ditto, older 24s. "

"SANTORIN, at 20s. a dozen, has high alcoholic strength, and fairly represents our notion of what Port Wine would be if we were allowed to taste it before the first brandying that is in Portugal made a condition of its export."—Examiner, Sep. 9, 1865.

"If people must have after-dinner wine at all, they will get no dyspepsia from DENMAN'S SANTORIN, especially if their dinner has been stimulated and seasoned by half a bottle of PATRAS, or WHITE HYMETTUS, or THERA."—Saturday Review, Aug. 12, 1865.

THERA 20s. per doz.

Ditto, old 24s. "

Ditto, older 28s. "

"A wine called THERA, of the vintage of 1861, is really a good wine. We can endorse Dr. Druitt's judgment: 'comparing this wine with a cheap fictitious wine of equal price, it is instructive to notice the fullness of wine taste and absence of spirit taste.'"—Saturday Review, Aug. 12, 1865.

ST. ELIE (or "Wine of Night") 24s. per doz.

Ditto, old 28s. "

Ditto, older 32s. "

"The white ST. ELIE is the very thing wherewith to thrust out the abominations sold as dinner Sherry. A ST. ELIE, at 24s. a dozen, is a better and more appetizing dinner wine than any Sherry at 48s."—Examiner, Sept. 9, 1865.

BOUTZA 24s. and 28s. per doz.
A full-bodied, dry, red wine.

COMO 28s. and 32s. per doz.

A red wine, resembling young rich port.
"The red wines, SANTORIN, COMO, etc., when two or three years in bottle, are equal to the finest Burgundies we have tasted."—Times, Sept. 7, 1865.

LACHRYMA CHRISTI... 42s. per doz.

A rich, red wine, far superior to Tent for the Communion.

VISANTO 48s. per doz.

An exceedingly luscious wine; delicious for dessert.

MALMSEY MUSCAT..... 48s. per doz.

CYPRUS of the Commandery 60s. to 96s. per doz.

PATRAS, white...16s. and 20s. per doz.

"As dinner wines, replacing Sherry and Madeira, and varying the inestimable Bordeaux and Burgundies, let us commend the Amontillado-like ST. ELIE, the Madeira-like THERA, the Chablis-like WHITE HYMETTUS, the peculiar KEFFESIA, and the delightful PATRAS among the white wines; and among the red, SANTORIN, KEFFESIA, and BOUTZA, which have a Port flavour, the latter being finer than anything but the finest Port."—Fortnightly Review, Oct. 15, 1865.

"The Greek wines introduced by Mr. DENMAN combine larger variety of vinous flavour with strength greater than that of any other European natural wines, being thus especially suitable for those who, from constitution or habit, incline to a full and generous though unfortified wine."—Spectator, June 17, 1865.

"So far as we can judge from the difference between the quality of the same wines in their first and in their second or third year, we should say that no cellar stock increases in value so rapidly and surely as a stock of Greek wines."—Examiner, Sept. 9, 1865.

"Mr. DENMAN is a wine merchant, and has written a very good history of wine, and to him is due the credit of introducing some important cheap wines from Greece."—Saturday Review, Aug. 12, 1865.
