World Trade Review

Editor

L. Alan Winters, University of Sussex, UK

The World Trade Review was established at the initiative of the Secretariat of the World Trade Organization (WTO) in close cooperation with Cambridge University Press. It is an independent journal - the Editor and all but one member of the Editorial Board are drawn from university faculties - that includes articles written from economic, legal, political and inter-disciplinary perspectives on issues of relevance to the multilateral trading system. Priority is given to papers that, along with being academically rigorous, are also accessible to government policy officials and the wider public. The journal also includes shorter articles seeking to rebut or challenge published papers.

A New Prize In Political Science

The Brian Barry Prize

Beginning in 2014, in partnership with Cambridge University Press and the British Journal of Political Science (BJPoS) the British Academy will award a prize in honour of Brian Barry, a distinguished Fellow of the Academy and founding editor of the journal.

Brian Barry was a distinguished moral and political philosopher whose work fruitfully combined analytic philosophy and political science, political theory and social choice theory. The prize will be awarded annually for excellence in political science, as displayed in an essay submitted for the prize that has not been previously published and is not under consideration for publication elsewhere. The essay can address any topic in political science, as covered by BJPoS, but essays in fields related to the work of Brian Barry will be especially welcome.

Essays may be submitted by anyone in possession of a first degree. Entries should be 8,000 to 10,000 words, with an abstract of no more than 100 words.

Entries may be submitted at any time, but to be eligible for the 2014 Prize must be received by 31 January 2014.

Entries should be submitted electronically to submission.barryprize@cambridge.org. They should be in accordance with the journal's style sheet available on the homepage.

The Prize will be awarded by the Events and Prizes Committee of the British Academy, on the advice of a Prize Committee especially appointed to assess entries for the Brian Barry Prize.

The Prize, valued at £2,500 will be awarded at a ceremony at the British Academy in July 2014. The winning entry will be published in the British Journal of Political Science, possibly after revisions.

Further enquiries should be directed to enquiries.barryprize@cambridge.org

notes for contributors

Manuscripts

The Editor welcomes the submission of materials for consideration as a main article or a review article. The approximate length required for main articles is 7,000 to 10,000 words, including notes. The Japanese Journal of Political Science is a refereed journal, and contributors should allow time for the process of refereeing to take place.

Manuscripts (MS-Word file) should be submitted electronically to the JJPS Editorial Office: jjpeditorial@cambridge.org

An abstract (no more than 250 words) together with a brief author profile (150 words or less) should accompany the submission. The author's name and affiliation must not appear on the main body of your manuscript, but only on a separate cover sheet. The desired location of tables and figures is to be indicated in the text, but all tables and figures are to be placed on separate sheets at the end of the article, following the notes and references. Tables and figures can be submitted in a separate file.

When an article has been accepted for publication after the process of review and revise, the author should submit a final version of the article in a Word file (MS-Word 2003 or later) to the editorial office of the Japanese Journal of Political Science as an e-mail attachment. All submissions must be typed in an unformatted Word document (no style is to be applied).

References and Notes

These are to be placed at the end of the submission, on separate sheets, and should be indicated serially within the article by superscript numerals. References should give full biographical details, including place of publication and the publisher, at first mention. Thereafter, the author's name and a short title should be used; op. cit. is not acceptable. A cross reference to the original citation (e.g., see n. 6 above) may also be added should the short title reference not be immediately clear. The title of articles should appear in single inverted commas, and the title of a book or journal should be in italics. Article and book titles in roman script are to be written as in the original. References and notes should be in the following form:

- 1 Robert Huckfeldt and John Sprague, Citizens, Politics and Social Communication (Cambridge: Cambridge University Press, 1995).
- 2 Ibid. p. 281.
- 3 T. J. Pempel and Keiichi Tsunekawa, 'Corporatism without Labor? The Japanese Anomaly', in Philippe Schmitter and Gerhard Lehmbruch (eds.), Trends towards Corporatist Intermediation (Beverly Hills: Sage Publications, 1979), pp. 23–26.

- 4 New York Times, 13 May, 1987.
- 5 Lester C. Thurow, Zero Sum, p. 24.
- 6 Junko Kato, 'When the Party Breaks Up: Exit and Voice among Japanese Legislators', American Political Science Review, 92, pp. 857–870.
- 7 Inoguchi Takashi and Iwai Tomoaki, Zoku Giin no Kenkyu [Research on Tribe Diet Members], Tokyo: Nihon Keizai Shimbunsha, 1987.

(The basic rule is that when Chinese, Korean and Japanese write in their respective language, then surname comes first and given name comes last, when Chinese, Korean and Japanese write in English, then the surname comes last and given name comes first.)

Subheadings

Contributors are encouraged to include up to two levels of subheading in articles to provide signposts for readers. These should be typed flush left, with only the first word and proper names written with an initial capital letter.

General

First proofs may be read and corrected by contributors provided that they can give the editor a current address and guarantee to return the corrected proofs, by e-mail where appropriate, within three days of receiving them.

Copying

The journal is registered with the Copyright Clearance Center, 222 Rosewood Drive, Danvers, MA, 01923, USA.

Organisations in the USA who are also registered with the CCC may therefore copy material (beyond the limits permitted by sections 107 and 108 of the US copyright law) subject to payment to CCC of the per-copy fee of $12.00. This consent does not extend to multiple copying for promotional or commercial purposes. Code 1468-1099/12 $12.00. Organisations authorised by the Copyright Licensing Agency may also copy material subject to the usual conditions. ISI Tear Service, 3501 Market Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19104, USA, is authorised to supply single copies of separate articles for private use only. For all other use, permission should be sought from Cambridge UK or the American Branch of Cambridge University Press.
