

“One of the most important books ever written about a popular music form.”

—TIMOTHY WHITE, BILLBOARD MAGAZINE

Creating Country Music

Fabricating Authenticity

RICHARD A. PETERSON

In this fascinating history of American country music, Richard Peterson tells the story of how country music developed as a commercial art form, exploring its humble birth and subsequent phenomenal success. He provides vivid anecdotes about the genre's earliest performers—Fiddlin' John Carson, the Carter family, Roy Acuff, Bill Monroe, Patsy Montana, and many more—and concludes with the man in whose image all future country stars were created, Hank Williams. More than just a history, Creating Country Music is the first book to explore the ways in which what is taken to be authentic changes over time, and uses these findings to show how country music can thrive well into the next century.

Notes for contributors

Three copies of the typescript should be submitted. This must be double spaced with margins of at least 1". Notes, bibliographies, appendixes and displayed quotations must also be double spaced. Contributors should write in English, or be willing to have their articles translated. Articles should not normally exceed 10,000 words but shorter papers are welcome. A cover page should be submitted with the article, containing the author's name and postal address, telephone number, and where possible, fax number and electronic mail address. When an article has been accepted for publication, the author may send a copy on computer diskette, together with details of the format and wordprocessor used. However, the publisher reserves the right to typeset any article by conventional means if the author's disk proves unusable.

Tables, graphs, diagrams and music examples must be supplied on separate sheets. Table headings should be typed above the table in the form 'Table 1. The musical categories'. Other captions should be typed double spaced in the same style on separate sheets. Tables, Figures (which include photographs) and music examples should each be consecutively numbered through the article and their approximate positions in the text noted in the margin of the typescript. Figures and music examples should, if possible, be supplied in a form suitable for direct reproduction. Photographs must be well contrasted black and white glossy prints, ideally measuring 8" × 6". Cross-references in the text to figures, etc. should be in the form '(see Example 1)', etc.

Permissions. Contributors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce any material in which they do not hold copyright (a form letter is available for this purpose) and for ensuring that the appropriate acknowledgments are included in their typescript.

Headings. The article title and subheadings should be typed using initial capitals only for the first word and any proper names.

Notes should be kept to a minimum and numbered consecutively through the text with raised numbers outside punctuation. Type the notes on separate sheets at the end of the article.

Bibliographical references should be incorporated in the text using the author–date system: 'as shown by Simon Frith (1981, p. 176)'; '(Frith 1981, p. 176)'; '(Smith and Jones 1978; Frith 1981)'. A complete Bibliography should be typed, double spaced, at the end of the article, following any Notes. Use the following style:

- Hebdige, D. 1982. 'Towards a cartography of taste 1935–1962', in Popular Culture: Past and Present, ed. B. Waites, T. Bennett and G. Martin (London), pp. 194–218
- Fairley, J. (ed.) 1977A. Chilean Song 1960–76 (Oxford)
- 1977B. 'La nueva canción chilena 1966–76', M.Phil. thesis, University of Oxford
- Green A. 1965. 'Hillbilly music: source and symbol'. Journal of American Folklore, 78, pp. 204–28

Discography. Contributors are encouraged to provide a Discography when appropriate. Use the style: Joan Baez, 'Song title', Recently. Gold Castle Records. 171 004–1. 1987

Quotations. Use single quotation marks except for quotations within quotations which should have double. Quotations of more than c. forty words should be indented and typed double spaced without quotation marks. Type the source on the last line at the right-hand margin.

Proof correction. Contributors receive proofs for correction (together with their original manuscript) on the understanding that they can provide a suitable mailing address and undertake to return the proofs plus manuscript within three days of receipt. Corrections should be restricted to printer's errors, and any other amendments marked will be made at the discretion of the editors and publishers.

VIRGINIA DANIELSON

The Voice of Egypt

Paper $17.95

Chicago Studies in Ethnomusicology

Umm Kulthūm, Arabic Song, and Egyptian Society in the Twentieth Century

Rarely, if ever, have the vital links between a star and her listeners been so thoroughly delineated as in Virginia Danielson's study of Umm Kulthūm and her audience. By showing us precisely how and why one singer's performances became such powerful experiences for millions of listeners, Danielson significantly enlarges our understanding of musical practice in the twentieth century."—Stephen Blum, coauthor of Ethnomusicology and Modern Music History
