

Editors' Notes

The Secretary of the Economic History Association, Ralph W. Hidy, is trying to make a collection of all programs of all meetings of the Association. Copies of programs for the years 1942, 1947, and 1951 are needed. Members of the Association having programs for these years who wish to contribute them are asked to write: Ralph W. Hidy, Graduate School of Business Administration, Harvard University, Soldiers Field, Boston 63, Massachusetts.

* * * * *

The École Pratique des Hautes Études, Paris, has begun publication of a quarterly journal, Études Rurales, devoted to studies in the social, economic, and technological history of agriculture, with special reference to Western Europe. Bibliographical notes and book reviews are included in each issue. Inquiries may be addressed to the school at 20, rue de la Baume, Paris 8^e, and subscriptions ($5.90 for four numbers) to Mouton & Co. N. V., P. O. Box 1132, The Hague, Netherlands.