POLITICAL SERMONS OF THE AMERICAN FOUNDING ERA: 1730-1805

Edited by Ellis Sandoz

Professor Sandoz has provided a superb collection of sermons bearing on the politics of the era of the American Revolution and the early Republic . . . All in all, this is one of the most useful collections of sources available for the study of the young United States.

—Robert Middlekauff, The Huntington Library

The political culture of this country was formed, refined, and transmitted by the political sermon—the “pulpit of the American Revolution.” These sources had been widely neglected and were largely inaccessible. Now, fifty-five of the most revealing political sermons are available in modernized and newly typeset form.

To read these sermons is to grasp the intelligence and spiritual depth of generations of Americans who understood the close connections between spiritual, intellectual, political, and economic liberty.

New and Recent Books on American Politics

DILEMMAS OF PRESIDENTIAL LEADERSHIP
FROM WASHINGTON THROUGH LINCOLN

Richard Ellis and Aaron Wildavsky

This book challenges the widely accepted distinction between "traditional" and "modern" presidencies. The unique dimension of this volume is its use of cultural theory to explain presidential behavior.

ISBN: 0-88738-221-5 (cloth) 546 pp. $39.95

VOTERS, ELECTIONS, AND PARTIES
THE PRACTICE OF DEMOCRATIC THEORY

Gerald M. Pomper

For over two decades the author has explored the empirical realities of mass politics and their implications for democracy, particularly in the United States. Combining empirical methodology with value-informed theory, he asserts the viability of contemporary democracy.

ISBN: 0-88738-160-X (cloth) 320 pp. $29.95

CHANGING COURSE
CIVIL RIGHTS AT THE CROSSROADS

Clint Bolick

This book identifies clearly real civil rights problems of today as government-erected barriers to entrepreneurial and educational opportunity as well as a vicious cycle of dependency and despair.

"...a fine, well-balanced contribution to the real struggle for civil rights in America..."

Walter M. Williams, George Mason University

ISBN: 0-88738-179-0 (cloth) 192 pp. $28.95

CAPTIAL CORRUPTION
THE NEW ATTACK ON AMERICAN DEMOCRACY

Amitai Etzioni

The appearance in paperback of this slashing critique is merited not simply by the quality of its analysis, but by the problems it poses. As the author notes in his new introduction, political corruption, as measured by campaign contributions of special interests to elected officials, increased significantly from 1980 to 1986.

Righteous Realists

Political Realism, Responsible Power, and American Culture in the Nuclear Age

Joel H. Rosenthal

Joel H. Rosenthal provides an illuminating examination of the ethics of postwar political realism, with a special focus on five of the most important and prolific of the American realists—Hans Morgenthau, George Kennan, Reinhold Niebuhr, Walter Lippmann, and Dean Acheson. Rosenthal explores the realists' overarching commitment to transforming traditional power politics into a form of "responsible power" commensurate with American values.

The Collected Essays of Gregor Sebba

Truth, History, and the Imagination

*Edited by Helen Sebba, Aníbal A. Bueno, and Hendrikus Boers
Foreword by Richard Macksey*

Covering a period of three decades, from 1950 to 1981, this collection of essays, including two previously unpublished pieces and two translated from German, reflects the curiosity and insight of a remarkable mind. The range of topics is wide, yet the discerning reader will detect a single underlying theme: human creativity and the search for truth, pursued along paths as diverse as Greek tragedy, Eric Voegelin's concept of order in history, and the poetry of Rainer Maria Rilke and T. S. Eliot.

Eric Voegelin's Significance for the Modern Mind

Edited, with an Introduction, by Ellis Sandoz

The contributors to this volume assay Eric Voegelin's significance for the modern mind from a variety of perspectives—those of the political scientist, the intellectual historian, the literary critic, the philosopher, and the theologian. Included are essays by Kenneth W. Thompson, Stephen A. McKnight, Lewis P. Simpson, Paul Grimley Kuntz, and Paul Caringella.
