THE TEMASEK SERIES

The Journal of Southeast Asian Studies, a non-profit-making body, invites contributions for a new serial publication called the Temasek Series. The editorial committee will be pleased to consider for publication scholarly writing on Asia in any discipline — more specifically, anthropology, archaeology, economics, geography, history, military studies, literature, political science, and sociology. The Temasek Series is a referee serial publication, and seeks to maintain a high standard of scholarship as well as quick publication. The length of each contribution should be between 20,000 to 100,000 words. Contributions of 20,000 to 30,000 words are definitely preferred. Not more than 300 pages in the Temasek Series will be published per year. All contributions should be typewritten or mimeographed with double spacing. Each contributor will receive six complimentary copies if he is the sole author of a publication, and ten offprints if he is one of several authors.

Editorial correspondence and contributions should be directed to:
