Contributors to vol. 34, no. 2 – ERRATUM

<https://doi.org/10.1017/S0898030622000069>, published online by Cambridge University Press, 5 April 2022

The original published version of the contributor list for vol. 34, no. 2 of the Journal of Policy History contained two errors.<sup>1</sup> Daniel Moak was described as an assistant professor of African American Studies; the correct title for this author is assistant professor of Government. Additionally, the listings for both Daniel Moak and Sarah Cate omitted the affiliation of both authors with the Debs-Jones-Douglass Institute. The corrected biographies for both authors appear below:

SARAH CATE is an assistant professor of Political Science at Seattle University and a member of the Debs-Jones-Douglass Institute. Her research focuses on the juvenile justice system, politics of prison reform, and American political development.

DANIEL MOAK is an assistant professor of Government at Connecticut College and a member of the Debs-Jones-Douglass Institute. His research focuses on education policy, Black political thought, and American political development.

The publisher apologizes for this error.
