

J. W. Wright.

B. Eyles.

Helena

*ASIN WILLS, THAT KNIDE WILLS
Act. 5. Sc. 5.*

Wright, J. W., illustrator. Helena. B. Eyles, printmaker. Mid-19th century. Folger ART File S528a1 no.46 part 1 (size XS)

Portraits of Helena were popular in the mid-nineteenth century. This engraving designed by John William Wright depicts her in her disguise as a Pilgrim of St. Jacques: the shell she wears, "la coquille Saint Jacques," is a symbol of the pilgrimage.

From an original in the Folger Shakespeare Library
Licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution-ShareAlike 4.0 International License (CC BY-SA 4.0)