

Mr. Kemble, as King John.

London Published as the Act directs, Oct. 22, 1817, by W. West, at his Theatrical Print Warehouse, Fetter-Lane, Fetter-Street, Strand.

Cruikshank, George. Mr. Kemble as King John [in Shakespeare's "King John"]. 1817. Folger ART File K31.4 no.26 (size XS).

George Cruikshank was a versatile British artist of the nineteenth century. His work includes caricatures, political cartoons, literary illustrations (including some editions of Charles Dickens' novels). Cruikshank also drew portraits like the one shown here of John Philip Kemble, of the famed Kemble theatrical family.

From an original in the Folger Shakespeare Library
Licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution-ShareAlike 4.0 International License (CC BY-SA 4.0)